Meeting

Morrow Co. CB's will hold their next meeting Sunday, Dec. 12, at 5 p.m. at the home of Bud Springer, 545 Jones St. Newcomers welcome.

Adult education offered

Adult education classes are being offered in Heppner. Thursdays and Saturdays mark adult education classes to improve reading skills, math skills, study for G.E.E. and earn high school diplomas. The classes take place on Thursdays from 7-10 p.m. and on Saturdays from 1-2 p.m. weekly. The classes are at the Neighborhood Center in Heppner. Vicki Tollefson is the instructor. Due to Christmas Holidays, the classes for Dec. 23 have been moved up a day to Dec. 22. Class will not be held on Dec. 25 or Jan. 1 either. Classes will be held on the regular evening time on Dec. 30. For more information, contact Ms. Tollefson at 676-9224.

Tuesday, Thursday

First Federal opens doors

First Federal Savings and Loan opened its doors in Heppner Tuesday in an interim, mobile service facility.

John Van Winkle

The mobile home type structure will be parked in a cement block garage on the corner of Main and Center streets. It will be open on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10-4 p.m. in Heppner. It will also be open in Boardman on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10-4 p.m. on Wilson Street.

loans, share loans, savings bonds. The savings and loan facility will also loan money on travelers' checks, escrow accounts, money orders, home loans, home improvement commercial property to build businesses. They will offer a "higher interest than banks," provided by federal law, according to John Van Winkle, manager. Van Winkle will be joined by Beth Zimmerman, teller. Both are from Hermiston, but have lived in Heppner.

Also offered by the facility will be loans on duplexes, apartments, and retirement accounts including IRA and KEOGH. Van Winkle called the mobile unit an "interim step" until the operation qualifies for permanent structure. Walking through the porch door, a patron will find a manager's desk, a teller's section equipped with both cash drawer and safe. A small carpeted lobby also greets the visitor. First Federal has its main office in Pendleton with branch offices in Milton-Freewater, Hermiston, and now Heppner and Boardman. The facility will hold a drawing in Heppner on Dec. 21 and in Boardman on Dec. 20 on a stereo console. The Trustone stereo has an 8 track player, AM-FM and phonograph. Persons are urged to visit the new facility and register for the free drawing.

Any person may appear at the public hearing on the supplemental budget, and discuss the budget or any part of it. Published Dec. 9, 1976.

STATE OF OREGON DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE Plant Division Agriculture Building Salem, Oregon

NOTICE OF HEARING Notice is hereby given that the State Department of Agriculture, Salem, Oregon, will hold a public hearing as a part of its consideration in the establishment of a Mint Disease Control Area Order in Morrow County, for the control and eradication of Verticillium wilt disease caused by pathogens Verticillium spp. The proposed control area order would provide certain restrictions and conditions in Morrow County: (a) only allow a change of ownership of propagation mint root stock within the control area if such stock is Oregon State University Certified 1 or better or has been certified by the department; (b) limit importation of mint root stocks into the control area to Oregon State University Certified 1 or better root stocks; (c) require mint growers in the control area to submit mint field maps indicating the location and certification of the mint root stock; (d) require mint growers to retain documentation of mint root stock sources and maintain maps of new plantings; (e) provide for inspection of mint fields by the department if such are not eligible for Oregon State University certification. The proposed control area order is based upon the provisions of ORS 570.405 to 570.435 and upon the apparent need to establish such a control program in Morrow County.

A public hearing has been set for Thursday, Jan. 20, 1977, at 2 p.m., in the Morrow County Courthouse, Heppner, Oregon. Any person desiring to remonstrate against the establishment of the proposed control area order or to submit facts, data or evidence concerning the same, may do so by attending the hearing. Mr. Bill Wright, Plant Division, Oregon State Department of Agriculture, is the duly appointed Presiding Officer for this matter. Copies of the proposed control area order may be obtained by directing a request therefore to Mr. Wright at the departmental headquarters at the Agriculture Building, Salem, Oregon 97310. Dated this 3rd day of December 1976. Leonard Kunzman, Director Published Dec. 9, 1976.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

3. Presentation of Final Plat for Ployhar Estates located in T.2S., R.26E., Sec. 22, on the north side of the Dee Cox Road, approximately one-third mile east from Hwy. 207, near Heppner. Owned and developed by Jack Ployhar and Bob Lankford, Heppner, Oregon.

Morrow County Planning Commission Signed Dorris L. Graves, Chairman Published Dec. 9, 1976.

Lighting contest set

Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce announces the 1976 Christmas Lighting Contest will be held the week of Dec. 19. The judging will be done the evening of Dec. 21, between the hours of 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. There is no formal entry procedure; all homes with their Christmas lights on during that time will be judged.

The judging will be based on two categories: outdoor decorations and lights and interior decorations and lights as viewed from the street. Winners from the preceding two years will not be eligible for prizes. This contest is sponsored annually by an anonymous donor, Kinzua Corporation and Morrow County Grain Growers.

Tacky Tailors meet Monday

Tacky Tailors have been meeting on Monday or Tuesday of each week during the month of November and will continue during December. Ruth McCabe has been demonstrating to members of the club, how to sew collars, pockets, hems and waistbands. Each topic is discussed during one of the meetings and then the club members practice the techniques using scraps of material. The girls in the club then decide on what they want to learn at the next meeting or what they are having problems with and Ruth discusses the subject at the next meeting. A caroling party has been planned for Wednesday, Dec. 18, at the Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner. This is for all members who are interested. News Reporter, Cathy Palmer

FFA'ers to sell trees

Heppner High School's Future Farmers of America are again selling Christmas trees here. Due to the new location of the First Federal Savings and Loan building, the trees have been moved to the space in front of Green's Feed and Seed store.

Adoptive announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham, Cottage Grove, former Heppner residents, are the proud adoptive parents of a new daughter, Sharon Elizabeth.

She arrived at the home of her new parents on Nov. 11, at the age of one week. She joins a brother, Tony, age 2, at home.

Tree trip

The Young Adult Group from the United Methodist Church are meeting at the church at 1 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 12, to go together to the mountains to cut a Christmas tree for the church. After they return, they will have a supper together and decorate the tree. Because of the increased number of young adults with children attending Sunday service, nursery care has been arranged for children each Sunday morning, Pastor Tollefson emphasizes.

Wed

Judge Paul Jones and Blanche Wise were married Dec. 1 at Fossil, Ore., with Wheeler County Judge Leckie officiating. After a small wedding reception hosted by friends, they are traveling south, stopping to visit friends and relatives along the way. Blanche and Paul plan to return around the holidays.

4-H Workshop

All 4-H leaders are invited to attend a workshop planned to assist them at all levels of leadership in Condon, Saturday, Dec. 11. The 4-H staff from Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler and Sherman Counties are cooperating on the one big training session, as well as local leaders and state specialists. The program will include informative sessions on project areas, presentations, judging contests, planning club programs, information about many new projects, as well as an update on support offered by state 4-H personnel, advisory committees and local staff. Lunch will be provided free, courtesy of the extension staff in the four counties. Any leader, junior or teen leader wishing to attend should notify the extension office at 676-9642.
