Blazers hand HHS 9th loss

A slow first period start and a disastrous first five minutes in the fourth quarter slumped Heppner with their ninth loss of the season Friday against Oregon Trail, 71-60.

Heppner trailed by ten, 50-40, heading into the fourth period tip off. Oregon Trail fed big center Rich Snow and the lead went to 70-44 with three minutes to play.

In the final three minutes, Oregon Trail emptied its bench and the Mustangs chopped 13 points off the deficit.

It started in the first period, though. The Mustangs, plagued all year by slow starts, trailed 12-4 after the first eight minutes.

By halftime, the eight points had been clipped to seven, due to a seven point second period effort by Kevin Haguewood.

Oregon Trail went to Snow in the third period and Don Sutton had six to total 14 between the duo and spark a 20-17 setback.

The ten point edge bounced to 26 five minutes into the final quarter.

The streaks that have upset

Head Coach Chris Borgen this year were evident again Friday. After the slow start, Heppner raced back to within four points with less than two minutes to go in the half.

But in that 90 seconds, HHS went sour and Oregon Trail look advantage of the opportunity.

Ken Grieb was the only Mustang in double figures, canning five field goals and a pair of gift tosses for 12 points. Snow had 18 for Oregon Trail, 14 in the second half. Charlie Berry had 14, Don Sutton and Mark McGunnigle added ten Heppner: Peck 9, Myers, Christman 2, Young 1, Haguewood 8, Huddleston 5, Skow 4, Cutsforth 6, Rauch 4, Marlin 4, Grieb 12, Seitz 5. Field goals: 22-76; free throws: 16-33; fouls: 26; rebounds: 46; turnovers: 19. Cutsforth had 11 rebounds.

Oregon Trail: Berry 14, Sutton 10, Madison 8, Crowell 3, Snow 18, McGunnigle 10, Nichols 5, Martin 3. Field goals: 30-76; free throws: 11-31; fouls: 22; rebounds: 38; turnovers: 21.

Three game conference statistics show Heppner shooting 29 per cent from the field, making 62 of 213 attempts.

The stat sheets show the Mustangs canning 52 per cent of their free throws.

Opponents this conference season are making 41 per cent from the field and 48 from the line. Heppner is being outrebounced 149-114 and are outfouling their foes, 82-53.

In total points, Heppner is being ousted 212-156 but have made less turnovers than opponents, 65-56.

Top shooter in conference play is Ken Grieb, hitting 12 of 35 tries. Dennis Peck is 11 for 29.

Wayne Seitz has connected on nine of 12 free throws to top the Mustangs. Leading rebounder in the three games is also Seitz, yanking down 18 caroms. He is followed by Carl Christman with 16, Jerry Cutsforth with 16, Kevin Haguewood 14 and Peck with 13.

Both Grieb and Peck have 28 points in the three contests and Seitz has 21.

Christman is the overwhelming leader in assists with 18. The closest man to him is Grieb, with six.

Heppner frosh split; crash Viks, drop WM

Heppner overcame part of an 11 point halftime deficit to move within five points with three minutes to play last week, but dropped a 37-27 tilt to Weston-McEwen.

The Mustangs hit just 24 per cent from the field in the game. The Mustangs outrebounced WM, 31-23, but couldn't find the hoop.

Dale Holland, frosh coach, praised the efforts of Larry Palmer and Steve Marlatt. Palmer had six points and as many rebounds.

Jim Parker led Heppner with nine points and nine rebounds. Palmer followed with Ron Young adding five points and seven rebounds, Marlatt four points, Chris Zita two, and Mike Jones one.

Heppner watched WM race to 11-2 first period lead and improve it to 19-8 by intermission. Heppner closed the gap by a fielder in the third period, trailing 25-16. The fourth period rally that came within five points, fell short at the buzzer.

Kim Devereaux scored 21 points for the Tiger-Scots.

Tough defense and an outstanding game from Jim Parker popped Heppner's freshmen Mustangs past Umatilla last week, 43-24.

Parker, cited by Coach Dale Holland, for his "best all-around game," sparked the Mustangs with 25 points and 14 rebounds. Leading scorer and rebounder, Dale Holland, Jr., is recuperating from an accident that left him with a separated shoulder.

While Parker led the team offensively, he teamed with Larry Palmer, Steve Marlatt and Lee McCarl to harass Umatilla defensively. The defense allowed the Viks just eight points in the first half.

Heppner built a 22-8 half-time lead and sat back on it. At the end of three quarters, the Mustangs were still doubling the Viks, 30-15.

The win balanced the Mustang season at 3-3.

Behind Parker, Palmer and Marlatt had six points, and Ron Young, Tim Hedman and Chris Zita each had two points. Marlatt pulled down eight rebounds and Young had seven.

Ness paced Umatilla with 11 points.

Frosh stats uncomparable

On paper, it could go either way. Usually, team statistics reveal areas where teams are especially strong or especially weak. Comparing team stats can come up with a winner in many cases.

But Heppner's Mustang freshmen are that rare exception.

From the initial jump ball, Heppner's team stats are exactly, yes exactly, the same as their opponents they have faced over the last six contests.

Heppner frosh have scored 211 points this year. Their opponents have scored 211 points this year.

Heppner has connected on 86 field goals this year. Their opponents have hit 86 field goals this year.

Even free throws are the same. Both the Mustangs and their foes have sunk 39 gift tosses.

As if that wasn't enough, both the Mustangs and their opponents are averaging 35.1 points per contest. That's probably why Heppner's freshmen are 3-3 on the season!

JV's win

(Continued from Page 5) Mark Piper had 13, Randy Worden had five, Curtis Sweek four and Bob Miller and Howard Huddleston each added two.

Brett Rohde paced Oregon Trail with 17 points, followed by L. Holeman with 11.

Saturday night was bitter for Heppner. The Mustang JVs had to swallow a 70-36 beating by Weston-McEwen.

The blow came in the second half where WM outscored Heppner, 40-14. Lieuallen had 22, Jones 15 and Webb 10 for the Tiger Scots.

Gordon Hoffnagle scored nine for Heppner, followed by Mark Piper with eight.

Heppner trailed 18-10 after one period and 30-22 at halftime. In the third stanza, WM outscored the Mustangs 24-8 and then followed with a 16-6 tally in the fourth.

From the field, WM scored 50 points to Heppner's 28.

Late rally stops lone girls

A poor fourth period spelled loss for lone Tuesday night in a girls' basketball game in Sherman, 30-17. Lone led 15-14 at the end of the third period. Coach Martha Doherty said her Car girls quit shooting in the fourth and Carla Van Borstle took over. Van Borstle had 14 points, eight of those in the last eight minutes.

Martha and Carol McElli-gott paced lone with four points each. Grace McElli-gott pulled down eight rebounds.

lone's junior varsity slapped Sherman, 24-16. Lori Edwards had 12 and Darcy Rea and Donna Shari each added eight. Robin Leavitt had 13 rebounds.

Fillys win 67-24

Heppner's Fillys returned to the winner's column Tuesday night, trouncing a hapless Oregon Trail girls team, 67-24.

Thirteen girls scored for Heppner. Jackie Mollahan and Wendy Myers paced the Fillys with ten each. Julie Grieb added nine.

A big second quarter blow-out, 18-3, set the pace for the route.
