About 1:30 a.m. last Thursday morning, workers coming home from the mill saw a fire at the Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., home. They turned in the fire alarm and firemen discovered their dog house was burning. However, an early detection kept the Pettyjohn house from catching on fire.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McIntosh were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McIntosh, Jr., and son Marty, of Newberg, and granddaughter, Mrs. Bob Johnson and family from Milwaukie.

Dixon T. Smith, former Ione resident, passed away recently at his home in Ventura, Calif., from a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy, daughter Barbara of San Monica, and a son, Bruce, of Riverside, and three grandchildren. He is a brother of Mable O'Hara of Condon, and Harvey Smith of Ione.

Vault interment was at Ivy Lawn Memorial Park, Ventura.

Ella Smith, Heppner, and Harvey Smith, Ione, flew down for the Memorial Service. Dorothy Smith is staying at Riverside with Bruce and his family.

At the Bill Ling home, Jan.

12, Delta Huber told Ione Garden Club members how to plan for continual bloom in their gardens. By using a flannel board and colored pictures, Mrs. Huber discussed the annuals, perennials, bulbs, shrubs and shade loving flowering plants that can add beautiful color every month of the year.

Delta emphasized our club theme, "Be a wise gardener," by keeping the principles of landscaping in mind when you plan your garden.

Ione Garden Club's next meeting will be Feb. 9 at Mrs.

Clell Rea's home, with Extension Agent Mike Howell presenting the program, Pruning and Fertilizing Fruit Trees.

The January meeting for the Beta Omega sorority members was held at the home of Sue Proudfoot.

Winning the doll in the December raffle was Dolly Allstott of Heppner, and walkie-talkies went to Helen Pettyjohn.

It was announced that Linda LaRue will be running for State Treasurer at the April convention. She is presently our State Parliamentarian.

Also, the Sorority is helping with the Heart Fund Drive, which will be Feb. 24th.

A traveling bake sale is scheduled for Feb. 14th and orders may be taken up to Feb. 11th, by calling Julie Nelson, 989-8494.

The Spring Cotillion date is set for Apr. 6th, with Julie Nelson and Liz Ernst being chairman and co-chairman, respectively.

A Christmas party was held at Cathy Peterson's home, with Barbara Stefani co-hosting. Secret Sister gifts were exchanged and gag gifts passed out to husbands.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adon Hamlett is their son, Tom Hamlett, and Miss Debbie Marr of Portland.

A graduation square dance was held Friday night the 21st at Willow's Grange Hall in Ione. There was a large attendance, including couples from Hermiston's Square Knots and Pendleton's Rocket Squares Clubs. The graduates were asked to demonstrate their newly-acquired knowledge from their just completed lessons. However, this was to be done by dancing in oversized boots; then they danced on a mattress barefoot. This was followed by each couple being awarded a diploma and an automatic membership to the lone Grand Squares Club. The graduates consisted of Clyde and Jackie Allstott, Wayne and Diane Hams, Wayne and Terry Gray, David and Carol Moon, Dan and Ronnie McBride and Mardel James.

Everyone enjoyed a late potluck dinner and dancing until midnight.

January 1977, I'm still writing "76."

We are watching that beautiful colorful film, Roots, on TV every night.

The logging trucks are still coming down Main St.; still not much snow in the mountains.

Wife meets husband at the door in the wee hours of the morning with two tickets to Hawaii, instead of the usual rolling pin. The husband still doesn't know what hit him.

If you like your prime rib rare, we found it's best to make reservations Saturday night at the West of Willow.

Apathy is here, but in Morrow County, our local citizens don't show it. One group is busy working to finish the top part of the Elks' Lodge before the Annual on Feb. 26. Another group is trying to make Hell's Half Acre a Wildlife Primitive Area for elk (the four legged kind).

Completing fifteen months' teaching in Clayton Victoria, Australia, is Gwen Drake. Gwen flew home for her summer's vacation, spending some of it here visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ray Drake. Gwen is enjoying Australia. She signed up for another fifteen months teaching physical education there.

Before filing my Christmas cards in No. 13, I re-read them. This one I will share with you, written by a mother of five, who has given 20 years to a career of mother and wife.

"This year has been the one I've waited for. I've taken up my tying! We discovered our 15 year old is a most rebellious, argumentative, selfish, hateful teenager. It is even so bad that he is rebellious about his great grades."

"Tony has found out it is easier to close up the bars at night than face the psychologist sessions we have set up for our older boy, who will not go to Cornell. All Bob wants to do is play golf and surf the beaches in California."

"Our refrigerator stopped making ice when we were in Hawaii and we came home to an indoor swimming pool."

"Jimmy, who is six now, was impatient with us to take him to his Christmas Sunday School play practice and started up the car. The garage doors now open the back of the garage. Enough???"
