

Mustang frosh fall at ft line

A poor performance at the free throw line against a "very strong team" spelled defeat for Heppner's freshmen Thursday at Hermiston, 50-36.

The Mustang frosh hit just 12 of 32 from the charity stripe. In the third period, Heppner canned just two free throws and dropped from a one point lead to an eight point deficit.

After a period, Hermiston, behind Mark Shockman and Matt Sobotta, had commandeered a 19-7 lead. But Heppner charged back in the second period, outscoring Hermiston 17-4 to take a one point intermission lead, 24-23.

That cold third period, producing just two free throws, put the Mustangs in a hole, 34-26, before Hermiston added six more to the edge in the final stanza.

Jim Parker led all scorers with 15 points and 11 rebounds. Ron Young also had 11 caroms and added six points. Larry Palmer had eight points.

Heppner outrebounded Hermiston, 39-27.

JVs falter, 46-32

A poor third period and controversy at the free throw line doomed Heppner JVs Saturday night in Sherman, handing the Mustang seconds their second loss in as many nights, 46-32. Heppner fell to Umatilla in triple overtime on Friday.

The Mustangs stayed even for two quarters with the Husky JVs, ending one back at halftime, 17-16. But Heppner mustered just four points in the third period and were outscored, 15-4, setting up the final period.

Heppner traded buckets in the fourth quarter and lost by the 12 point margin.

Coaches expressed some concern about officiating at the game. Heppner made six of 13 tries at the line, while Sherman went to the charity stripe 30 times and made 22.

Bob Miller paced Heppner with 12 points. Dave and Mark Piper, the Mustangs' leading scorers, were held pointless in the contest.

Dan Decker had 13 for Sherman County.

eight points.

Foul trouble continued to haunt Martha Doherty, lone coach. But free substitution in the contest remedied the problem when three girls were in early foul trouble.

Ione topped Helix in every category of the contest. The Card girls outscored the Grizzlies from the field by 16 points.

Ione built a 12-5 first period lead to 13 points at halftime, 21-8. They gave up one fielder in the third period to lead, 26-10, then coasted through the final quarter.

Following Grace McElligott, Martha McElligott had seven and Dawn Peterson and Lisa Martin added four each. L. Clayton and S. Eichler had four each for Helix.

Joan Doherty was the top rebounder for Ione with nine, followed by Susan Thompson with seven.

Ione faces Wasco County today (Thursday) at 6 p.m. The game was rescheduled from a Jan. 10 slate. Ione goes to Arlington Friday.

Dufur the cushion for a win.

Robin LaRue led all scorers with 16 points and Kevin McCabe had 15 for Ione.

Dufur jumped out to an 11-10 first period lead, but by halftime the Cards had erased the single point margin and were even up at 26.

Rebounds played a key roll. Dufur outboarded Ione, 42-38, setting up a couple crucial put up shots in the third period, where Dufur outdistanced Ione, 23-17, and took a 49-43 edge.

A strong defense held Ione to six points in the final stanza.

Stefani had eight rebounds to lead Ione and four assists.

HHS JVs lose after triple OT

Umatilla end bounced the pass, but it was knocked away.

With two seconds to play, the ball came to Journot. The little Vik guard pumped up a 35 foot mortar, with little arch, that buckled in the bucket and fell through at the buzzer.

The second overtime was somewhat anti-climactic after Heppner had thought they'd won the game, 64-60, and had even walked off the floor.

In the second OT, Umatilla canned four free throws and Heppner used a field goal from Mark Piper and Hoffnagle to tie the contest at 66.

The Viks took advantage at the line again in the third overtime, despite a late technical foul, and sunk four pressure free throws, two by Journot, to ice the game.

With 28 seconds to play, the Viks led 70-68. A player was not listed in the scorebook and drew a tech. Heppner missed the shot, then turned the ball over. Although they had another chance to score in the waning seconds, they didn't capitalize on the break and fell short by a field goal.

Dave Piper paced Heppner with 14 points in the game that saw ten players foul out. There were 73 fouls whistled in the game.

Dave Piper was followed by Bob Miller with 13 and Mark Piper with 10.

Picard, who fouled out in the first overtime, led the Viks with 20 points. Journot had 17 and Borchert added 14.

Five men from each team fouled out with five fouls each.

The Viks won the game at the free throw line, canning 24 of 49 attempts. Heppner hit 12 of 32 tries, outscoring the Viks from the field by 10 points.

Umatilla: Borchert 14, Journot 17, Cook 4, Baker 2, Runion 1, Hendrick 5, Allen 2, Bradley 5, Picard 20. Field goals: 23; free throws: 24-49; fouls: 32; fouled out: Borchert, Journot, Cook, Bradley, Picard.

Mary Kincaid powers Ione jr hi past Heppner

Mary Kincaid and Michelle LaRue combined for 29 points last week to lead Ione junior high girls' past Heppner seventh graders, 41-32.

Kincaid led all scorers with 17 points and LaRue added 12. Ione jumped out to a 14-8 first period lead and strengthened it to 11 points at halftime, 26-15. Ione added five more to the margin in the third quarter, 11-6, before giving up seven in the last stanza.

Darcy Hollomon paced Heppner with 10 points. Sandra Ward had eight.

Heppner: Hollomon 10, Tami Gorham 2, Karen Kenny 2, Cindy Gochbauer 6, Ward 8, Cindi Bergstrom 2, Dawna Devine 2.

Ione: Kincaid 17, LaRue 12, Dianne Morter 7, Tammy Holtz 3, Margaret Kincaid 2.

Sands, Eckman lead city league

A six team league is currently pounding the hardwood at Heppner High School gym each Tuesday night. The city league teams play full court competition.

The squads, represented by men from late teens to 40s, are vying for a six week championship that will be capped by a three week single elimination tourney in late February and early March.

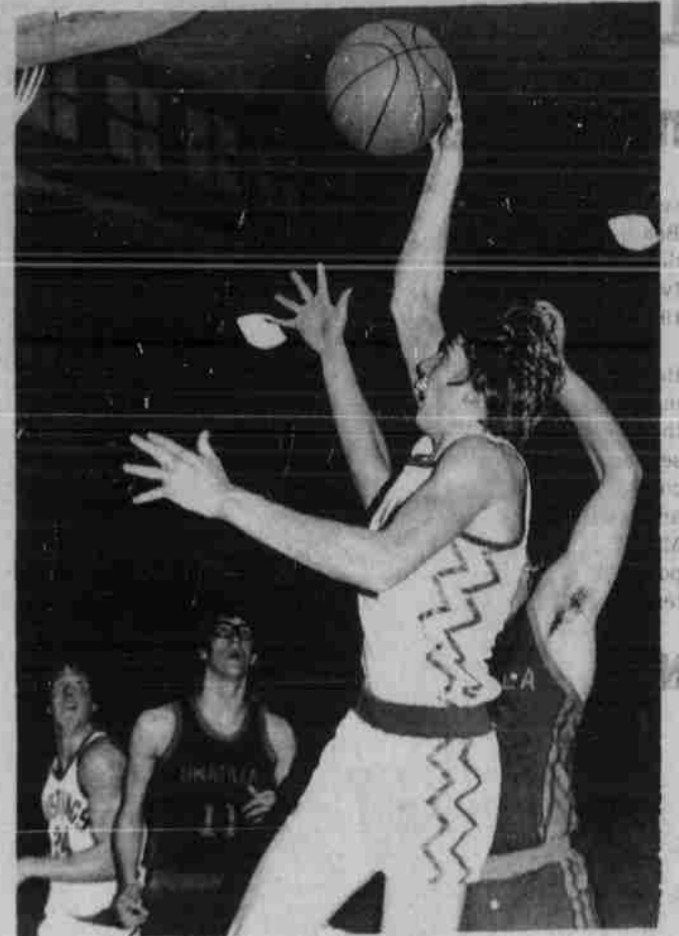

The teams play the five game-six week schedule at 6, 7, and 8 p.m. on Sundays. Nineteen minute halves are played with ten minute intermissions. Referees are volunteers from teams not playing in that particular game.

The tourney will be played on Feb. 20, 27, and March 6.

Last week's contests saw a couple routs, the closest score a 20 point spread. Sands bounced Greenup in the first contest, 72-28; Eckman followed with a 64-22 trounce of Pointer; and Ball ripped Ernst in the closest tilt, 66-44.

In this week's contests, the games were a little tighter. In the opener, Greenup slipped past Pointer, 44-36; Sands nipped Ball, 44-40; and Eckman tripped up Ernst, 44-42.

Game time Sunday is 6 p.m.; Greenup-Ball; 7 p.m.: Sands-Eckman; 8 p.m.: Pointer-Ernst.

Cards drop game to tough Helix

Ione's Cardinals were out-matched Friday night, falling to a shell-shocking Helix Grizzly unit, 88-47. The Grizzlies pounded the hoop with 31 buckets to Ione's 19.

Ione dropped behind by 13 in the first period, 21-8, and never saw daylight again. Dennis Stefani led Ione with 16 points and Kevin McCabe added 10. Rick Emerick had 26 for Helix.
