'Distant Summer'

"The Distant Summer" by Sara Patterson was reviewed by Mrs. Vic Rietmann at the meeting of the Ione Topic Club on Jan. 26.

Hostesses were Mrs. Rietmann and Mrs. Elmer Ladd. This interesting novel was written by a 16-year-old girl, based on research she had done for her father on the World War II period. The story is situated in England and involves a 17-year-old girl and an RAF rear gunner and an American pilot. It recalls the suspense and love which was typical of this war torn era.

For the past couple of months, members of the Ione Fire Department have been selling tickets on several items to help raise money for needed fire equipment. During halftime at the high school basketball game last Saturday evening, the lucky numbers were drawn. Winner of the TV set was Arlynda Aldrich. The clock went to Monty Crum and free pizza went to Joan Doherty of Lexington.

Officers Elected
The Ione City TV Co-op held their annual meeting at the American Legion Hall Monday evening. The minutes of last year's meeting were approved and treasurer's report accepted. A lengthy discussion was held on finishing laying new cable in certain areas of the town. It was voted to hire it done, if not too expensive. The following officers were elected: President, Elby Akers, Vice President, Gene Rietmann, and two directors, Jim Swanson and June Crowell. Numbers were drawn for the door prizes of: six months' free TV to Dave Leach, four months to Gladys Heliker, and two months to June Crowell. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served by the Ione High School senior class.
