

Kinzua news

• Barbara Pike • 768-2861

It is time to sign up for the Church Camp to be held Mar. 31 to Apr. 2 north of Appleton, Wash. The camp is open to those twelve through teen-age. The cost is only $8.00. You should have your application in by Sunday, Mar. 20. Contact Reverend Mai at the Kinzua Church or call 768-2786 to make your reservation.

NEW ARRIVAL

Orselio Mario and Dahlia Ruiz are the parents of a brand new baby boy born Tuesday, Mar. 8, at The Dalles General Hospital. The baby, named William, weighed in at slightly over six pounds.

POTLUCK AND SINGSPIRATION TO BE HELD

A potluck and Singspiration will be held at the Kinzua Church Annex on Wednesday, Mar. 30, at 6 p.m. The evening is open to all; you are urged to attend.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK CELEBRATED

Kinzua Girl Scout Troop 627 and the Kinzua Brownie Troop 439 started Girl Scout Week (Mar. 6-Mar. 12) by attending services at the Kinzua Community Church on Mar. 6. The girls were accompanied by Scout leader Myrna Collins and Brownie leader Lori Carr.

The Scouts want to remind everyone that they will start selling those wonderful Girl Scout Cookies on Friday, Mar. 18.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS

The Friendship Card Club met Monday evening at the home of Patsy McMinn. Winner of the prize for high game was Shirley Orr. Second high went to Jeannie Morley. Shirley and Jeannie also won the pinochles.

Other members enjoying the evening's play were Dinah Jackson, Sharon Bell, Karen Cossitt, Laurie Hire and Ruth Carey.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD AT MITCHELL HOME

Windi Mitchell was honored at a party held Friday to celebrate her tenth birthday. The honoree and her guests played games, opened gifts and enjoyed birthday cake and ice cream.

Among those helping Windi celebrate her big day were Rob Conlee, Cissi Wallis, Robin Mattison, DeRina Reid, Scott Conlee, Jodi Mattison, Tara Baker, Lana Reid, Clark Wallis, Shayne Benson, Cindy Mitchell and Dana Reid. Also present were several parents.

CONGRATULATIONS AND APPRECIATION

TO KINZUA CORPORATION

Employing number 400 at Heppner's mill and for Kinzua's constant, conscientious attitude toward our environment. Thank You.

RAY BOYCE INSURANCE

For All Your Insurance Needs

676-9625

Heppner

228 N. Main St.

WE'RE NEVER NAPPING

Kinzua Corp.
helps keep us
awake.

The Heppner Gazette-Times thinks it's about time KINZUA CORPORATION was honored for their outstanding economic contribution to the area.

We salute KINZUA and offer a year's subscription to Kinzua employees for $5. (Offer only good on new subscriptions.) Thank you, Kinzua.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

HEPPNER