Grand Square dancers fete senior's club

When square dancers from the Grand Squares dance club of Ione danced for the shut-ins at the nursing home, and for the Senior Citizens' Club social at Memorial Hall in Condon last Dec. 19, 1976, it was enjoyed so much by both participants and spectators that they were asked and promised to return.

True to their word, Sunday afternoon, April 17, two squares did that very thing.

Those going were: Bill and Daisy Collins, Bill and Winifried Cox, Heppner; Don and Lois Wood and Dorothy Warren, Lexington; Paul and Helen Pettyjohn, Lloyd and Shirley McNary, Ione; George and Lorene Griffith, Cecil; club president Marvin Epley and wife Muriel, Olex; Ron Davis, Rock Creek area; Jim and Helen Cochran, Condon; and the club's caller, Darrel Wilson and his "taw" (wife) Bev, Ione.

As before, the square dancers shared in a dance with the senior citizens. Ron Davis of the Grand Squares called this one.

The Grand Squares also enjoyed dancing one set to the calling of Don Wood, club president-elect.

A supper of sandwiches, relishes, punch, coffee and strawberry shortcake prepared by the senior citizen hosts was shared and enjoyed.

Child care center work cited

Chloe Pearson, director of the Heppner Child Development Center, says that donations and volunteer help is really appreciated there.

The Morrow County Chamber of Commerce gave $35, which was used for craft supplies for the children. Central Market and the Gazette-Times are also thanked for the paper they have contributed.

Betty Seagren, the Tri-County Health Service nurse-practitioner, has been contributing off-duty time to give free health examinations to children whose parents find it a hardship to pay for an entrance exam, which is required before a child can be left at the center.

Federal 4-C funding, Community Coordinated Child Care, is available to help meet the costs of child care for working parents in a low income bracket.

Mrs. Pearson says that several volunteers have been helping on Saturday afternoons with finishing the interior of the building into which the center will be moving soon. The new location is on the Paul Warren place.

She said that the center really needs more volunteer helpers, such as substitute teacher aides.

Anyone who would enjoy assisting with this worthwhile community service should telephone her at 676-5035 or 676-9246.

Buchanan sons visit family in Irrigon

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buchanan were their three sons and their families, including Mr. and Mrs. Bob Buchanan of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Buchanan of Portland, and Bruce Buchanan of Anchorage, Alaska, who works as a chemist on Cooks Inlet.

While they were home, they celebrated their mother's birthday.

Former Irrigon residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henner, Sr., visited old friends, including Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Vestie Elgin in Irrigon on Friday.

The Irrigon Lions' Club provided 65 dozen colored Easter eggs for the Irrigon Community Easter Egg Hunt.

The parade route was from the fire station to the Irrigon Park on the Columbia River. The little tots were free to roam in the fenced area of the Little League Ball Diamond while the older children filled their baskets with Easter eggs hidden on the lawn.

The wind was whipping up whitecaps on the river, but no one seemed to mind.

Seventy-seven relatives gathered at the Guy Riddle home to honor Grandma Cosner on her 92nd birthday. Two large birthday cakes served the family gathering, along with a potluck dinner. Mrs. Cosner lives at the Good Samaritan Nursing Home now, but was able to be at her daughter's home for the happy occasion.

'Golden Yesterdays' sold out

"Golden Yesterdays," the Retired Senior Volunteer Program storybook, has sold out its second printing of 325 copies a few days ago. Several copies that were reserved by individuals are all that remain in the RSVP office, June Wagner, director, Umatilla-Morrow RSVP, reports.

The popularity of the book has surprised the group and they are now in the process of deciding if they should make another printing and if so, how many.

Some of the charm of the book lies in the fact that the stories are by older people in the immediate area, telling of a brief experience that happened to them "away back when." Nearly every person who picks up a book can find a story by someone he knows. Many are finding that the $3.00 books make excellent gifts. Anyone interested in securing a book may call 676-5873 at the Neighborhood Center in Heppner and leave an order for the next printing.
