Egg hunt successful; Links club has election

The Easter Egg Hunt held on Saturday afternoon at the Lexington school grounds was well attended. A group of Holly Rebekah members were in charge of the hiding, and assisting the small ones in their hunt.

Three Links Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Robinson for their regular meeting and election of officers on Thursday afternoon. The same officers as last year were elected, as follows: Ruth Robinson, chairman; Marion Robinson, vice chairman; Delpha Jones, secretary. Plans were made for another traveling food sale to be held the Saturday preceding Mother's Day. The pillowcases and other fancy work have been received and members are asked to pick them up and get them finished for the bazaar in November. Door prize was won by Dorothy Burcham.

Members present were Leila Palmer, Marion Robinson, Florence McMillan, Katie Padberg, Dorothy Burcham, Leita Messenger and Delpha Jones.

The next meeting will be at the home of Irene Padberg in May. It was announced that the Rebekah Assembly president for '77 and '78 will pay her official visit to our lodge September 29, a Thursday, which will be a special meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell were recently here from their home in California, bringing Mr. Campbell's father, Roy Campbell, home after a visit there.

Jean Christman, Boise, was a recent visitor at the home of her mother and brother, Betty Christman and Carl, in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tellechea and small son are now living in Lexington on the Ralph Burcham lot.

Florence McMillan was surprised on Saturday afternoon when several of her friends stopped in to surprise her with cake and coffee on her birthday. There were 16 ladies present for the afternoon. The cake was a flat creation with tan icing, orange roses, and lettering, Happy Birthday, Mom. Coffee and tea were also served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller and family, of Heppner, were guests at the C.C. Jones' ranch on Monday night, where they enjoyed dinner in honor of Earl Miller on his birthday. Other callers that evening at the Jones' ranch were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Hood River.

Millie Yocom, Portland, was a recent caller at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom.

Norma Marquardt has recently moved into a trailer adjoining her house at the Marquardt ranch. Members of the family will reside in her former home.

Rick Marquardt and sons, from Connell, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, over the weekend.

Mrs. Carl Marquardt and daughters Sherrie, Debbie and Lolita were Portland visitors Saturday on business.

Carroll and Jerry Messenger, Portland, and Franklin, from Bend, were callers at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, Sr.

The Extension walking tour of Portland scheduled for this Friday, April 22, has been cancelled, according to the Heppner Extension office.

Mrs. Owen Leathers, Larry Cook and Carl McDaniel attended the funeral of an uncle, William Pennington, at Baker on April 13.

Pennington was a pioneer in this area and worked for the Minors for many years.

The Heppner relatives were accompanied by Mrs. Carey Hastig and Norvin Adams, both of Hermiston.

Society director makes annual Heppner visit

The evening of April 12, Beatrice Clausen, Bend, state director of the Degree of Honor Protective Society, made her annual visitation to the lodge at Heppner. She was accompanied by her friend, Mary Cardell.

Society President Shirley Connor presided at the business meeting and the initiation

Senior high service

The senior high school Methodist Youth Fellowship members, with their advisor, Vicki Tollefson, have been working diligently to prepare for the Sunday worship service next Sunday, April 24, at Heppner United Methodist Church.

Linda Bier, Lela Breidenbach, Coleman and Bobbie Devine, Lynn Gochner, Tim and Dee Hedman, Debbie Klaus, Janice Sherman and Ron and Bruce Young will take part in the service, and the only adult taking part will be the regular organist, Pauline Miller.

After the morning service, the youth group will go to Pioneer Memorial Hospital to repeat their program. They volunteered to present this hospital service at 2 p.m.

Lawn sale work begins

Collecting of items for the May 21 Methodist Lawn Sale has begun in Ida Farra's garage, where the committee members, Lesley Patching and Elsie Leathers, will price contributions.

Among interesting antiques already on hand is a six-drawer, porcelain knobbed, hand made chest that came from early Lexington. It is an unusual, real Morrow County antique.

Inadvertently omitted from last week's listing of committee members was Martha King's name. Martha will be helping with the baked goods sale and with the luncheon.

ceremonies which followed. Pat Wright, Lexington, was the initiate. Shirley wore a special orchid corsage which was given to her by Ruth Bergstrom.

Members were reminded of the district convention which will be held in Pendleton May 17. They were also invited to the Pendleton lodge's initiation on Tuesday, April 19, which was to be preceded by a no-host dinner at the Elks' Club.

Mary Bryant, director, and members of the drill team presented a new drill as part of the evening's program. President Shirley had asked each member to bring a button to put into a gold kettle which was presented to the state director as a favor from the Kate J. Young Lodge.

Ida Farra presented Shirley Connor with a cup and saucer decorated with the Degree of Honor emblem. Marjorie Warden won the evening's door prize. Before the meeting, Ida Farra had entertained Beatrice Clausen and Mary Cardell at dinner in her home.

Volunteers in smile contest

Volunteers of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program in the Heppner area measured width of their smiles during their "Spring Thing" potluck luncheon recently at the Heppner Neighborhood Center.

Many of the ladies modeled and told about their home-sewn outfits. Most reported the great savings over store bought clothing as well as that figure problems could be better camouflaged or allowed for. All outfits showed personal tastes in clothing choice. Several showed ingenious use of remnants.

Prizes in the smile contest and other games were fresh spring geraniums and pansies or impatiens.

Rachel Harnett received her 100 hour service pin and Lawrence Brady was awarded a 20 hour certificate.
