

Kenny, Allstott reign over prom

Queen Kathleen (Guy) Kenney and King Dave Allstott reigned over the Junior-Senior Prom in Heppner Saturday, April 30.

The court was also comprised of Sally Matheny, Steve McLaughlin, Carl Christman and Deb Holland, who were introduced by Junior Class officers Sally Sumner, Bruce Young and Cathy Palmer as they presided over the crowning ceremonies.

Approximately 200 students, parents, faculty and friends attended the coronation amid attractive decorations. The ceremony followed the theme, "An Evening in Paradise."

Music was provided by "Captain Jack" from Spokane.

The prom was preceded by the Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Heppner Elks' Club and prepared by Junior Class mothers.

Sally Sumner, Junior Class president, served as Mistress of Ceremonies at the banquet. Entertainment at the banquet was provided by Jim Ackley and his band.

Square, Round dancers meet in Ione

The Eastern Oregon Area Council of Square and Round Dance Clubs meet every fifth Saturday of the month, and Saturday, April 30, was the Grand Squares club's turn to host it.

The evening began at 6:00 p.m. with a potluck supper in the basement of Willows

Grange Hall, Ione, with the host club providing the main dishes.

Members from all four clubs in the area were present at the meeting, which followed the supper. One of the more important items of business discussed was tentative plans to hold a benefit dance for Muscular Dystrophy research sometime in June or July.

After the meeting, the group moved upstairs, where they enjoyed dancing to Grand Squares' caller Darrel Wilson as well as Don Wood, guest caller Clarence Johnson, Country Cousins, and Ervin Williams, Square Knots.

At 10:30, it was back to the basement for refreshments of leftover goodies from the potluck. The group then returned upstairs for installation of next year's council officers in a candle lighting ceremony.

Area Council President Ervin Williams called incoming officers and area delegates from all four clubs to form two squares. As President Williams read each couple their duties of office and they promised to uphold these duties, their candles were lit by Bill and Daisy Collins, representing Public Relations officers. The ceremony concluded with every member present from the four area clubs, as well as a guest couple from Montana, lighting their candles from those of the two squares, gathering around them in a circle, and pledging to uphold the square dancing policy of fun, friends, and fellowship, so that no one who enters the world of square dance will be a stranger.

Officers installed

Wednesday, May 3, a joint installation of Post Officers and dinner was held at the Heppner Elks' Club.

On Saturday, May 14, a Girls' State Tea for the district is set for the Heppner Legion Hall at 2 p.m.

On Monday, May 16, the last post meeting for the spring, along with a potluck dinner, will take place at the hall on Chase Street.

Food sale Saturday

Greenfield Grange at Boardman.

Remember the Ione Garden Club plant sale at the Legion Hall on Thursday, May 5, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Pie and coffee will be served all day. Homemade candy will be sold at the Country Store, along with many other attractive and useful items.

The Heppner Degree of Honor's Carnation Club has arranged a sale of home-made foods for this Saturday, May 7. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. at the Degree of Honor Hall on Main St., according to the organization's president, Mary Bryant.

Chamber tour

32 view north end

Thirty-two persons from Heppner, Lexington and Ione toured developments near Boardman Monday as part of a Heppner Chamber of Commerce sponsored tour.

The tour included more than an hour at the Portland General Electric coal plant near Boardman. PGE spokesman Bus Clough told the chamber that 400 men were at work on the generating plant this week.

Sintag Farms was also on the tour. The farm operation was explained by Sam Martin, general manager.

At the Boardman lunch stop, Rupert Kennedy, head of the Port of Morrow, briefed chamber members on port activity. Ray Boyce presided at the noon program.

The tour was put together by Kennedy, Herman Winter and Harold Kerr, county agent.

Other stops on the tour included Gourmet Foods and Oregon Potato.

Final stop of the day was the 180 cow milking operation of Gantenbein Dairy.

Lawn Sale set May 21

The ladies who are working at pricing the incoming items for the annual Methodist Lawn Sale Day, May 21, report that several unusual donations have come in recently.

Old fishing poles, a like-new four-drawer chest, an old hand-embroidered bedspread and a table model electric slide viewer have joined the growing collection. Already priced are an electric mini clothes dryer, a vacuum cleaner, typewriter and stereo table.

Several people are starting a big variety of house plants for the sale. There will be some outdoor plants, too. Other women are working at craft items they will contribute.

Advance orders for artificial-flower cemetery arrangements are being taken at 676-9446.

This annual fund-raising effort by the Methodist women will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 21. The baked goods sale will also start at 10 and go on until everything is sold. The luncheon in the church basement will be from 11:30 until 1:30.

Mothers attend OSU function

Mothers from Ione attending Mothers' Weekend at Oregon State University were Mrs. Darrel Wilson, Mrs. Henry Krebs, Mrs. Roland Bergstrom and Mrs. David Cheney.

Mrs. Krebs and Mrs. Wilson attended functions at the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity. Fraternity members from Ione are Greg Wilson, Skye Krebs, Joe Rietmann, Dick Snider and Charlie McElligott.

Joe Rietmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rietmann, was voted Outstanding Pledge for the A.G.R. house this year. Charlie McElligott won this same award last year. Greg, Dick and Charlie all have served as house officers.

The Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity has been outstanding in campus leadership this year. Five members will serve as campus officers next year, one of them as Oregon State University Student Body President.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree spent the weekend of April 22 at the home of Mrs. Sharon Gelinas at Caldwell, Ida. They also attended the 4-H Horsemanship at New Plymouth, Ida.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the cafeteria on Friday night, April 29. The theme of the banquet was the "Roaring Twenties." The prom was held on Saturday night at the grade school gym and the theme was "Opening Night on Broadway." Ashley McCabe and Joan Doherty were crowned King and Queen of the prom. On Monday afternoon, May 2, the members of the G.A.A. held their annual Mothers' Tea, honoring all high school mothers. This was held in the gym and the program consisted of the girls modeling the dresses they wore to the prom.

Miss Linda Lee Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson of Portland, will become the bride of Mr. Robert Lee Huston, son of Mrs. Robert J. Huston of Portland, on Friday, May 27, at seven o'clock in the evening at the All Saints' Catholic Church in Portland. Linda is a niece of Mrs. Irene Swanson of Heppner, and Mrs. Adon Hamlett of Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Crabtree and Miss Barbara Fritchey of Tacoma, Wash., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree.

Regular Grange meeting will be held Friday, May 13, at the hall, with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m., followed by the meeting. On May 21, there will be Visitation Night, with

Bike rodeo set

A bicycle rodeo will be sponsored in Ione, Tuesday, May 10, according to Carolyn Holt, Morrow County juvenile director.

The rodeo will get underway at 3:45 p.m. at the Ione High School parking lot.

Sponsors of the event are the Morrow County Peace Officers' Association and the Morrow County Juvenile Advisory Committee.

Participants will be cyclists from grades one through eight. Police will check all bikes before the contests to make sure they are safe.

There will be different skill test courses laid out for the bikers to run through. Prizes have been donated by local businesses and interested private citizens.

A similar bike rodeo program is scheduled for Heppner on May 22.
