Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday evening for their regular meeting. Preceding the meeting, the charter was draped in memory of Annie Keene. Mrs. Keene joined Holly Rebekah Lodge in January of 1907, having worked her way through the chairs, being secretary from 1911 and 1912 and later serving for 12 years, beginning in 1942.

She had received the decoration of Chivalry and had been a most faithful member until illness caused her to become inactive. The girls, in pastel colored formals, were candlelighters, and speakers were dressed in white. A Mother's Day tribute was read in honor of Sister Annie.

During the business of the evening, plans were discussed concerning the painting of the inside of the hall, with estimates to be gathered. The NG read two Mother's Day poems during the good of the Order, after which refreshments were served.

Grand Squares hold Anniversary celebrated

Grand Squares celebrated their Ninth Anniversary as a club, with five squares dancing to the calling of Darrel Wilson at the Willows Grange Hall in Ione, Saturday, May 7.

The Ione club hosted dancers from Rocket Squares of Pendleton, Square Knots of Hermiston and former Grand Squares' members, Jim and Mary McClain, who were visiting at the Dallas McDaniels home. The McClains now live in Redmond.

The hall and dining area were appropriately decorated with baskets of May flowers, bouquets on the tables and parasol cutouts on the walls.

During refreshments, door prizes were awarded to those whose paper plates said "Happy Ninth" on the underside. Homemade ice cream was provided by George Griffith, Lloyd McNary and Jerry Holmon.

The committee in charge of the anniversary celebration included Bill and Daisy Collins, Jerry and Joyce Holmon, Lloyd and Shirley McNary and Dan and Barbara Jones. Dorothy Warren, historian for the club, has gathered considerable material on the club's activities over the nine years and compiled it in a scrapbook.

The Grand Squares also received a rather pointed invitation to Pendleton when members of the Rocket Squares "stole" the local club's banner, leaving the message, "Come square up with us on our dance night soon."

Ione visitation day planned

Scheduled May 10 in justice court are hearings for James Ray Lankford, 19, of Heppner. Lankford is charged with careless driving and minor in possession of alcohol. He was cited by city police following an accident on Quaid Street involving a pickup owned by Mrs. C.H. Privett, 110 E. Quaid.

Scheduled for hearing May 25 are Edward Pedro, 19, of Echo, and Joseph E. Trubachik, Sr., 36, of Gresham. They have been charged with fishing in a closed season on Willow Creek in separate cases. Fishing season opens in Eastern Oregon on May 23 of this year.

Many guests visit at Pomona Grange meeting

Morrow County Pomona Grange met at the Rhea Creek Grange Hall Saturday, March 30, with Master Bryce Keene in the chair. Escorted to the Master's chair and introduced were State Deputy Ralph Fenton and wife.

Other honored visitors introduced were Morton Wolverton, Umatilla County deputy; Berl Akers, Morrow County deputy; Joe DuPuis, Umatilla County Pomona master and wife, Mary; Margaret Akers, District 6 chairman of women's activities, and visitors Mr. and Mrs. Art Dalzell.

Mrs. Dalzell was given a gift of appreciation for her 12 years as secretary in Morrow County and in light of her record of unbroken attendance at meetings.

Art is master of Haystack Grange and Irene is secretary. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Barker of Mud Springs Grange. Both Granges are near Bend.

Dinner was served by ladies of Rhea Creek Grange, followed by a cake walk. The program consisted of readings from the various granges and slides taken of Arizona and way points by Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were elected to go to the State Grange session as delegates from Morrow County Pomona. Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark were named Grange insurance delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Coble recently retired. State Deputy and Master of Baker County Pomona Grange were introduced and each spoke on the work of the Grange and the need for younger members. They also issued an invitation for visits by local Grange members.

Visitation is scheduled at Greenfield Grange on Saturday, May 21, at which time Lexington will bring the program, consisting of musical selections and a flag drill by Holly Rebekah ladies. Refreshments will be handled by Rhea Creek.

The next Pomona will be an evening meeting in Boardman on Saturday, June 25.

BUY THE VEHICLE YOU NEED

WITH A FIRST 48-MONTH AUTO LOAN.

Now you can afford the vehicle you need. Ever notice something about the new cars? Many of them cost less to operate, but they sure seem to cost more to buy in the first place.

Well, we can't do anything about bringing down the price you have to pay, but we can do the next best thing: give you more time to pay it in... up to 48 months, depending on purchase price.

The way we see it, those extra months may let you afford to buy the kind of vehicle you really want—new car, wagon, van, camper or light truck.

Simple interest. Another benefit to you is simple interest. That means you're only charged interest on the amount you actually owe—only for as long as you owe it. And you'll save money if you make extra or early payments. There's an interest charge, but no penalty charge, for late payment.

First time for everything. While you're getting to know our 48-month FirstLoan for autos, find out about our other FirstLoans... for home improvement... vacation... personal... money for any good reason!

Come into any of our branches across the state and see why in banking services, there's a First time for everything. Member FDIC. An Equal Housing Lender.
