

Heppner lanes change hands

With a new owner, a new name and even a new coat of paint, Heppner Bowl is planning a September 1 opening to bring a full slate of bowling activities to the community.

The new owners of Heppner's only bowling lanes, formerly known as Fiesta Bowl, are Bob and Marilyn Schiller, Buttercreek. Don and Cathy Isom will manage the operation and Isom plans to stay busy for the next couple of months making improvements and alterations.

In addition to painting the building inside and out, Isom is planning to open two more bowling lanes, bringing the total to eight. Also planned is a complete overhaul of all the pinsetters and the installation of a new snack bar.

Isom said he will add tables in the snack bar area where hamburgers, tacos, french fries soft drinks and possibly chicken will be served.

A new collection of games will be added including foosball, pinball and other amusements.

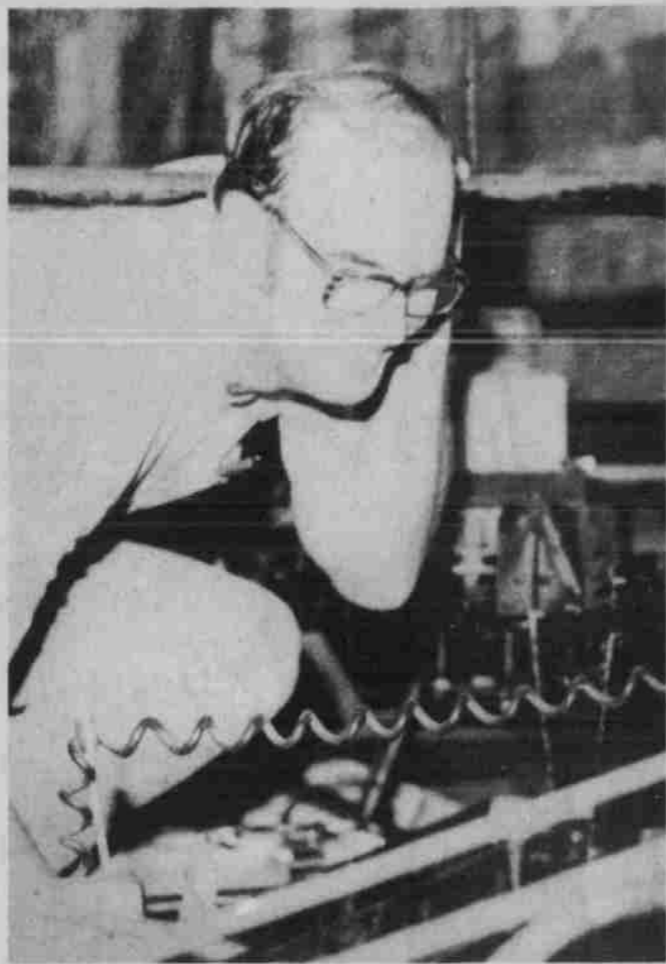

All the improvements have necessitated a price hike to 75 cents a game which Isom said is "still one of the least expensive in the Northwest". House shoes and balls will be provided at no charge.

Sign-up is currently underway for fall and winter leagues which Isom hopes will begin on the September 1 opening. The leagues will be divided into two sections of 18 weeks each. Planned are two shifts of Sunday mixed doubles, Monday and Wednesday men's night leagues and a Saturday morning student league.

City tournaments for both men and women will be held and additional promotions will be announced throughout the year.

Hours of operation are tentatively set at noon to 11 p.m., with Monte Carlo bowling every Friday night.

"We're going to try a lot of new ideas to bring in more bowlers," Isom said.

Don Isom, new manager of Heppner Bowl, inspects pinsetters in preparation for September opening. Persons interested in bowling leagues are urged to sign up now.

Morrow fair court keeps on the move

This year's Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court has been on the move lately with trips to LaGrande, Milton-Freewater and a Fourth of July appearance in Condon.

The weekend of June 25, the court, comprised of Queen Mary Anne Proctor and Princess Teresa Proctor, Deborah and Donna Palmer and Krynn Robinson, traveled to LaGrande to participate in the Blue Mountain Revue parade and attend a luncheon date.

The following weekend the group appeared for a luncheon in Milton-Freewater and then it was on to Condon to appear in the Grand Entry and parade where the group won first prize in court judging competition.

This weekend the court will be kept busy in Prineville where the royal ladies will join in the parade Saturday morning and the Grand Entry both Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

The group has been accompanied on their travels by chaperone Mary Ann Palmer along with her husband Lee and daughter Anita. Also making the trips was Mrs. Don Robinson.

Rounding out the entourage have been the pennant bearers without whom those first place awards would not be possible.

This year's pennant bearers are Shawna Seitz, Marie Yocom, Laurie Edwards and Bobbi Schiller. They have been accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schiller and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Seitz.

Fair & Rodeo salutes Nelson

The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Committee held a surprise party for D.O. Nelson who resigned his position as committee chairman following his appointment as the new county judge.

The party and potluck dinner were held July 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curtis. Nelson was presented with a macramé owl made by Mildred Rauch and a card designed and drawn by Pauline Matheny. Dinner was served in the Curtis' beautifully decorated backyard.

Nelson presided over the meeting and then turned the chairmanship over to Mike Conley. Present at the meeting were; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Rauch, Alvin McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Piper, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Conley and daughter along with Mike's mother who was visiting the family. Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kroll and D.O. Nelson.

During the meeting, Jim Launer was hired as night watchman for fair week and it was announced there will be a balloon clown present for the fair activities.

Frieda Majeske who has been spending some time with her daughter Pat Wright returned this week to Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Russell

Kucera of Cheyene, Wyo., visited their brother Earl Miller at the C.C. Miller ranch this week. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller and family of Heppner.

Mrs. Betty Christman and Mrs. VanWinkle attended a class for school cooks at the Portland Community College last week. Bill visited at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jack VanWinkle in Heppner. The two men visited their mother Cleo VanWinkle in Pendleton on Monday of last week taking her to Walla Walla for needed medical attention.

Couple take vows

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Keene were hosts for a wedding rehearsal dinner for Loreta Pinney and Richard Keene on Saturday evening June 25 at the Willows Grange Hall. Thirty-eight people attended and out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Loy Keene, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Easley, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Carston Brandhagen, Heppner and Mrs. Ron Jones, Spokane.

The young couple were married Sunday June 26 at the United Church of Christ at 4 p.m.

Ione news

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Keene were Mr. and Mrs. By Trevett of Campbell River, B.C., who had come for the Pinney-Keene wedding.

The C.W.A. of Willows Grange will meet at 2 p.m. on July 15 in the Ione City Park.

Birthday celebration

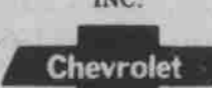

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stephens of Umatilla brought a birthday cake to their father, Ernest Stephens, in Irrigon to help him celebrate his 88th birthday. Other visitors at their home during the week included their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Benson of Salem, the Bensons daughter-in-law, three granddaughters and Mrs. William Cooper of Sandpoint, Idaho.

Irrigon news

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson are their daughter Carmine Wilson of Santa Cruz, Calif. and their granddaughter Cindy Bartlett of Lynnwood, Wash. They came to Irrigon with the Wilsons, who spent several days visiting their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartlett in Lynnwood. Miss Wilson returned to Santa Cruz, on Monday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Schmoll and family have returned from a vacation trip to San Diego, Disneyland and other points of interest.
