Smooth...

Penny Connor shows the fluid motion of the breaststroke in the girls 8 and under division at the Heppner Invitational swim meet here last Sunday. Penny picked up several second place finishes to add to Heppners point total.

behind Hood River's winning total of 653 and Prineville's second place score of 482. Trailing Heppner were the Hermiston 'B' team with 69 points and White Salmon with 36.

Heppner wound up with six relay wins and ten individual winners as several swimmers turned in their best times of the year.

Relay winners included the girls 9-10 team of Ellen Arbogast, Kelli Bergstrom, 13-14 free and medley relay of Shane Laughlin, Rick Smith, Mike Hart and John Bridenback; and the 9-10 mixed relay of Ellen Arbogast, Kelli Bergstrom, Tom James and Cam George.

In the individual events, Kelli Bergstrom won four events with times of 52.0 in the girls 9-10 60-meter free; 1:05.8 in the breast stroke; 1:05.5 in the butterfly and 2:14.2 in the 120-meter individual medley. Rick Smith took three firsts in

Rodeoers place

At the Hermiston jackpot team roping competition last week Cindy Dougherty and Jerry Gentry placed second in the novice roping.

Stock for the series of five ropings is furnished by Bob Steagall, Bob Mahoney and Jerry Dougherty. The ropings are held once a month in Hermiston and anyone can enter in one of the three divisions—novice, pro-novice and open.

Buckles are donated for the winners of each group at the end of the series.

At the recent Union Rodeo held July 9-10, Jana Steagall received a handmade leather belt for winning the All-Around of the show.

Brett Sherer placed first in jr. barrels and jr. poles. Cindy Dougherty and Dave Steagall placed second in team roping while Cliff Dougherty placed fifth in jr. barrels and fifth in calf roping. Janice Healy finished fourth in sr. barrels.

Herald fought back with four runs by Green, Rogers, Ruhl and Blessing. Kinzua held off a final Hermiston rally in the seventh on a diving catch by right-fielder Mike Smith to seal the victory.

This Thursday, July 21, Kinzua meets Gormet in a 7 p.m. game in Lexington.

Kinzua cops a pair

Kinzua breezed to a 16-1 victory over Marlette in a five inning contest last week in Hermiston.

The visitors took command early, scoring six runs in the first inning. Mike Smith, Keith Curnutt, Marvin Lane and Mike Rowell drew four of the eight walks allowed by Marlette pitchers and Jamie Sands, John McCabe and Jamie Query added singles.

McCabe blasted a three run homer in the third to pad the lead before Marlette got on the scoreboard with a single run home run in the fourth.

Kinzua followed with six more runs in the bottom of the fourth on singles from Curnutt, Delbert Binschus, Dave Eckman, Rowell, Gearl Seal, Buck Query and Gary Kemp.

In a game that went seven innings Wednesday night at Lexington, Kinzua squeezed by the Hermiston Herald 9-7.

Kinzua racked up five errors but still manage to hold off their opponents.

In the first, Hermiston jumped out in front by scoring two runs. Kinzua came back with runs off Bill Baker's single and a Herald error allowing Jamie Sands to score.

Hermiston was held scoreless in the second and Kinzua rallied for two more runs on Mike Rowell's triple and Dave Eckman's single. Gary Kemp singled but was unable to score.

Pete Turpin came up with the lone run for Hermiston in the third. Heppner exploded for five runs in the fifth as Kemp, Baker, Curnutt and Rowell singled.
