Molly Pierce Butcher-Wolff weds Steven Rhea vows exchanged

Molly Fay Pierce became the bride of Steven Carl Rhea in an afternoon ceremony June 25 at Heppner United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pierce of Heppner. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea of Lexington area.

The Rev. Steve Tollefson officiated at the double ring ceremony. Shannon Kelly was vocal soloist with Mitchell Groh organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory polyester crepe and train trimmed with ecru lace with matching headpiece and veil. She carried a bouquet of peach colored rosebuds.

Kimee Haguwood was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Pierce of Mesa, Arizona, sister of the bride; Martha McQuinn of Pendleton, sister of the bride; and Lori Rhea, sister of the groom.

Greg Green was best man. Ushers were Steve Kemp, Steve Brownfield and Jim Van Winkle.

Ingrí Pierce, niece of the bride, was flower girl with Rian Klenke, nephew of the groom, as ring bearer. Candelighters were Linda Johnson and Nancy Brownfield.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Church basement and then a family buffet in the yard of the bride's parents. Following this the couple left for a stay at a mountain cabin on the Umatilla River.

St. John Catholic Church in Condon was the setting for the June 18 wedding of Nicki Anne Butler of Mayville and Thomas Franklin Wolff of Heppner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Butler, Mayville and the groom is the son of Dr. Wallace Wolff and the late Mrs. Wolff.

The Rev. John Mlakar officiated at the afternoon, double ring ceremony. Karen Dyer was vocalist and Adele Wilson and Juli Lantis provided organ music.

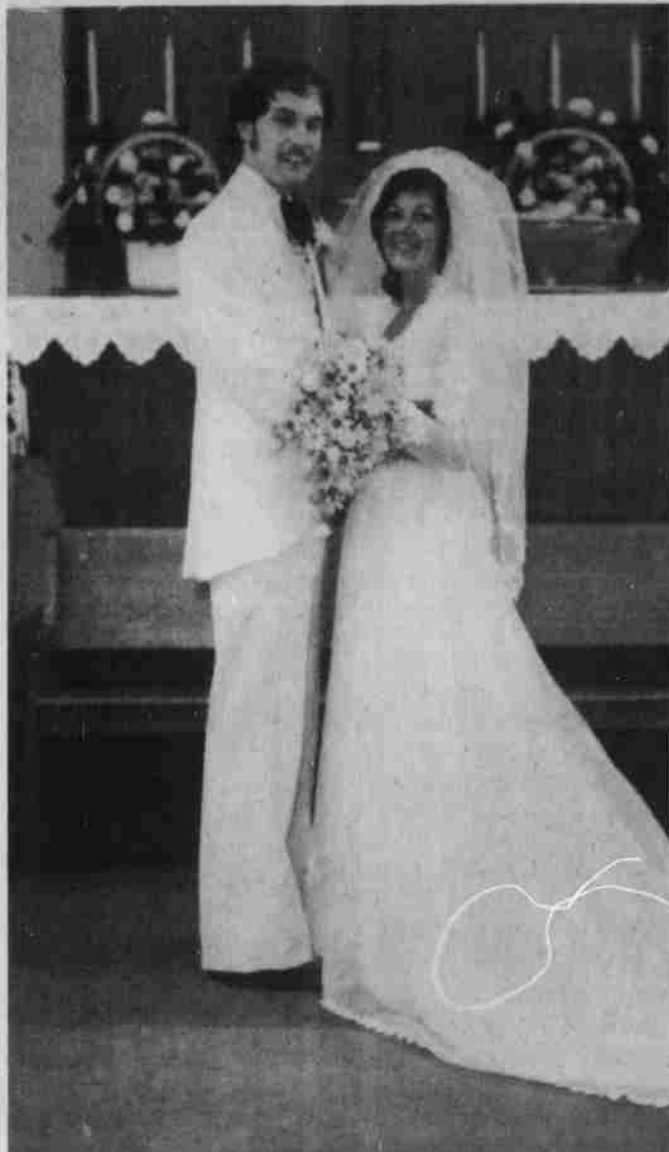

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white sheer organza and Venice lace gown for her wedding. The gown with its chapel train was appliqued with Venice lace and trimmed with seed pearls. A Juliet cap held her two layered illusion veil trimmed with Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of pastel colored daisies, white stephanotis, white baby roses and baby's breath.

The bride asked her sister, Shelli, to be her maid of honor. Kathy Wolff, Heppner, the groom's sister, and Rena Rattray, Condon, were bridesmaids.

Jim Ployhar, Heppner, was best man and Kelwayne Haguwood, Heppner, and Eric Suing, Lebanon, seated the guests.

A wedding reception was held for the couple at the Mayville IOOF Hall.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the couple will make their first home in Salem. The bride is a graduate of the Merritt Davis Business School at Salem and is employed by a Salem neurologist. The groom has completed his sophomore year at Oregon College of Education and is transferring to Oregon State University in September to major in accounting.

Arts and crafts group sets Aug. 18 meeting

Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts group met recently at the home of Mrs. Paul Brown and presented a gift to the outgoing president, Jan Bietel, who is leaving the community to reside in McNary.

Sue Duncan (Mrs. Bob Duncan) was elected to fill the vacancy and Sylvia McDaniel replaced Ann Melland as secretary.

The group decided to have a monthly meeting at the Lexington School building and paint or work on whatever craft they are interested in. The next meeting will be August 18, from 1 to 4 p.m. A short program will be held, either art demonstrations or lectures related to some phase of crafts. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent in actual work, with help from those more experienced in handling a particular media. Dues for one year's membership are $5 with the money to be used to further art shows and activities in the community. The following new members joined; Ruth Nutting, Cork Norene, Verna Brinda, Betty Mills, Jo Jean Forquer, Shirley Beamer, Mary Beamer and Mabel Heath.

All members were urged to participate in the Morrow County Fair display, and are going to collect old barn boards to be used for a permanent display for arts and crafts at the Fair Pavilion. Blue Mountain College has been contacted by the group in order to have a fall art class in oil painting. After enjoying a sack lunch the members then proceeded to paint, sketch, or plan a future masterpiece.

Quilting demo draws big crowd

More than thirty persons attended the demonstration on the preparation of wool yarn that Linda Gifford presented at the county museum on Thursday evening, July 28. She showed the sorting of the fleece, carding, and several methods of spinning.

Irene Swanson and Dot Halvorsen were seated at the quilting frame to demonstrate quilting and answer questions concerning their craft.

Fair features kids coloring contest

"Hey kids!" Color Me Funny and win a prize at the Morrow County Fair" says Tacky the Clown. Tacky, the Clown who will be appearing at the Morrow County Fair, August 23, 24, and 25, is sponsoring a coloring contest for kids ages five through 12.

The pictures and entry blanks will be available at Kroll's Department Store in Heppner, Del's Market in Lexington, Bristow's Market in Ione, and in Boardman and Irrigon by this weekend.

A Tacky prize will be awarded at Tacky's last show Thursday afternoon, August 25, on the fair grounds, to the best picture colored by a boy and the best picture colored by a girl in each of the following categories: 1) 5-6 yr.; 2) 7-8 yr.; 3) 9-10 yr.; 4) 11-12 yr.

Winners do not have to be present to win but they won't want to miss Tacky's act and his part in the pet show Thursday noon. Thursday is really a kid's day and members of the Fair Committee encourage all the youngsters to attend.

Entrants are to return their picture to the store at which they got the picture by Saturday, August 20, or to the office of the Fairgrounds by Tuesday, August 23.

Mrs. Lena Kelly is convalescing at home following major surgery at Good Shepherd Hospital, Hermiston.

She was accompanied home by her sister in law, Mrs. Jo Carey, Walla Walla, who stayed with her about ten days. Mrs. Carey is a registered nurse.

Visiting Mrs. Kelly presently, are two of her sisters, Mrs. Edith Pfeil, Salem, and Mrs. Ethel Gaarde, Murphys, Calif. Mrs. Gaarde attended her high school reunion July 23, 24, here in Heppner. They are also visiting with other friends and relatives while here.
