

This week in RELIGION

Methodists announce programs

The Heppner United Methodist Church begins its fall programs this weekend and offers exciting learning and recreational opportunities for everyone of any age.

Sunday, September 11, Sunday School classes and Morning Worship go back to the traditional winter hours; classes will meet at 9:45 a.m. and the church service will begin at 11 a.m.

Carley Drake will be teaching the 5 to 7 year olds; Harry Kennison will teach children in grades 3-5. Barbara Hayes and Cindy Green will work together with those in grades 6-8. Vicki Tollefson will again lead the high school class which will meet in the parsonage. Barbara James and Rev. Steve Tollefson will teach the adult class.

Monday evenings at 7:30 the regular Bible Study-Prayer group will meet with Rev. Tollefson in the small chapel.

Last Wednesday night, Sept. 7, the United Methodist Women held its first monthly meeting in the church basement at 7:30 p.m. Today, Thursday, the Susannah Circle will meet in the church at 2 p.m.

This evening at 7:30 everyone who enjoys singing is invited to come to the first Thursday evening choir practice. Arnie Hedman continues as choir director and Carley Drake is organist.

A special event for the church youth is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 10, when Cal and Beverly Sherman will sponsor a day of water skiing and picnicking at Hat Rock. Accompanying the group of senior youth on this outing will be Gary and Barbara Watkins and the Steve Tollefson family. Those planning to make the trip should be at the church at 9 a.m. Saturday. The regular mid-week meetings of the Senior Youth will begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, in the church.

As soon as public school is well underway, the Methodist Church will be using the school district's released time from 2:30-3:30 on Monday

Christian education classes set at Episcopal Church

Released time Christian Education classes will begin at All Saint's Episcopal Church on Monday, September 12, at 2:30 p.m. All unchurched youngsters grades 1-8 are welcome to join with church youth to learn of the Christian Faith and how to practice it in life and relationships. For more information please call the church office most mornings at 676-9970. Fr. Miller will be glad to help you. Themes this year will involve Joy and Celebration in the gifts of God: Joy in God's Creation, Living together in

Episcopalian panel to discuss rural community

On Saturday, September 10, the Rev. Jeff Selles, Rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Baker, will be at All Saint's Episcopal Church working with Fr. Miller, Rector of the parish, and a group of Lay persons on Christian Education in the Rural Community. Fr. Selles and Fr. Miller have been working with a number of concerned Lay persons in developing a curriculum for this area of Church life for the National Church. All Saints will be a pilot project parish in establishing facts, figures, goals and citizen comment from those who participate in rural community activities. All mem-
