North Morrow County 4-H Leaders met at the home of Vern and Francine Evans on Thursday. Matters under discussion included combining 4-H Achievement night with Sign-up night on Sept. 22 at the A.C. Houghton School.

Plans were made to serve a potluck dinner with 4-H parents asked to bring a salad or dessert. Meat and potatoes will be provided by the leaders.

This will mark the beginning of the new 4-H year as well as finalizing the past year and recognizing achievements of the 4-H members.

All club members and parents are urged to attend. Any child from the 4th grade through High School, who is interested in joining a 4-H club is welcome. Parents who are concerned about the training of their children are invited to come and learn about the 4-H program and to serve as 4-H leaders.

Irrigon 4-H members who were among the winners at the Oregon State Fair included:

Donald Richards with his champion market hog. He also placed second in senior swine showmanship. Erin Evans received a blue ribbon in style review. She modeled a Russian peasant outfit with a border print skirt and full gathered top and a vest. Jyl Hobbs and Becky Hobbs placed first in Food Preservation.

Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Stephens of Irrigon, their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stephens of Umatilla and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eggiman of Tacoma were guests of Mrs. May McKinney in Pendleton on Saturday, and helped her celebrate her 85th birthday. Mrs. McKinney is Mr. Stephens' sister and Mrs. Eggiman is his niece. The group also attended the Dress-up Parade.

Cindy Bartlett of Lynnwood, Wash., spent a week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett were archery hunting near La Grande.

Steve and Roberta Conlee went to The Dalles Friday on business.

Earl and Carol Norris went to Prineville Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Apperson who live in McCloud, California.

Don and Barbara Pike went to Hells Canyon to spend the Labor Day weekend. They were joined by their daughter and son-in-law, Chuck and Patti Constantin and several friends of the Portland couple. The Pikes returned home Tuesday evening to pick up their daughter LuAnn for a trip to Portland Wednesday. In Portland, they visited with the Constantins and Sue Pike, who was spending several days visiting from her home in Ashland. The group spent most of the day at the University of Oregon Health Science Center where LuAnn had an eye examination. The Pikes returned to Kinzua late that evening. Thursday, Don and Barbara left to finish their vacation in Nyssa with their son and family, Lance and Hollie Van Meter and Clay.

Scott Conlee celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday with a family bar-b-que held at his parents home. Those enjoying the bar-b-que, birthday cake and ice cream included Chuck and Melba Mitchell and children, Raymond and Deena Reid and daughters, Bob and Laura Hire and children. Also present was Scott's grandfather, Robert Reid, Hermiston, and his parents, Steve and Roberta and brother Robbie.

Gwendolyn Sharp and Joseph Bennett were united in marriage in a ceremony held September 10th at 2 P.M., at the Kinzua Community Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gwen Sharp, Kinzua. The groom is the son of Mrs. Beverly Pierce of Humptulip, Washington.

The bride wore an old-fashioned dress of blue and white with a front panel of lace. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations and white daisies. Angie Jackson, friend of the bride was the maid of honor. Aaron Duncan Enney was the best man. Sherry Pierce, sister of the groom, was flower girl.

A reception was held at Jeffmore Hall following the ceremony. Among the out of town guests were the grooms grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cavanaugh, Humptulip, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bennett, Heppner.
