Legion

news

Heppner American Legion Post No. 87 and Auxiliary held their regular monthly meetings and potluck dinner Monday, Oct. 17, at the Legion Hall.

Reports from Girl's State delegate, Dee Hedman and Boy's State delegate, Doug Marquardt were heard. Both young people enjoyed and learned from their experience. Dee, a senior at Heppner High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Heppner, who are both active participants in American Legion and Auxiliary. Doug, also a senior at Heppner High, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marquardt, Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Marquardt were guests at the dinner and program Monday evening.

At the Auxiliary meeting following the program, plans were discussed for Christmas Gift Shop. Also discussed was the Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Workshop scheduled for Nov. 5, at Pilot Rock. This is one of the principal projects of the Auxiliary. It will be presented by Department Chairman Arlene Downing, Lebanon. It will be a four hour session, starting at 10 a.m., with a noon luncheon served by the Pilot Rock unit. It is open to all units from District 6. Any members from this area interested in attending should contact Martha King, as the Pilot Rock unit needs to know by Nov. 2 how many people to expect.

District 6 President Evelyn Sweek made a visitation to the Elgin Unit Tuesday, Oct. 18, and will also make a visitation to the Baker Unit Thursday, Oct. 20.

Maintaining car topic of October meeting

"Maintaining Your Car" will be the topic of the Widow and Widower Club meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 26, at Blue Mountain Community College in Pioneer Hall Room 106.

The club was organized to help recently widowed men and women deal with social and emotional situations.

For more information about the organization or meeting, call Sandy or Renne Bishop at 276-1221 in Pendleton.

Retired teachers to meet October 22

Myron Knigge of the Seattle office of NRTA Insurance will be the speaker at the October meeting of Oregon Retired Educators and will be available to answer questions of general interest.

Members needing assistance should bring their certificates of Insurance or most recent remittance cards. The meeting will be held October 22, at the United Methodist Church in Milton-Freewater, beginning at 11 a.m.
