

Three HHS seniors vie for '77 crown

This year Heppner High School's Homecoming court, selected by the varsity football squad, combines beauty, intelligence, talent, leadership and athletic prowess in equal measure.

A queen will be crowned during halftime this Friday night, chosen from seniors Janice Healy, Sally Sumner and Shelley Thompson. Juniors Maureen Healy and Jackie Mollahan round out the court.

Shelley Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Thompson, is the vice-president of the National Honor Society, a dance team member and plays varsity volleyball. She belongs to Girls' Athletics Boosters, as does the entire court, and likes to water ski and tole paint in her spare time.

Sally Sumner is the daughter of Mrs. Rita Sumner and Rep. Jack Sumner. In addition to being president of the senior class, she belongs to the National Honor Society and helps keep Mustang football statistics. Sally enjoys showing horses, hunting birds and is an excellent seamstress.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Healy have two daughters on the court.

Janice is president of Girls' Athletic Boosters, president of the Rodeo Club, plays varsity volleyball and basketball, and is a member of the dance team. She is the 1977 Western States Junior Rodeo Association queen.

Maureen belongs to the Rodeo Club, National Honor Society and the dance team. She is a member of the varsity volleyball, track and, hopefully, basketball teams. Maureen will succeed Janice as Western States Junior Rodeo queen in 1978.

Jackie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mollahan, is FFA secretary, a member of National Honor Society and the dance team and plays both varsity volleyball and basketball. She enjoys camping, waterskiing and traveling.

This year's Heppner High School Homecoming Court has the royal qualities to make any school proud.

THE FORCE AT HHS

"Star Wars" sets the theme for this year's Homecoming week at Heppner High with the space fantasy being carried through from decorations to a special Star Wars costume day to the halftime show on Friday night.

A busy week began with hall decorating and organization of class float decorations on Monday and Tuesday.

Wednesday was Sock Day, topped off by a Pizza Party and the burning of the traditional "H" afterwards. Decorations for the Friday night dance were also started by students.

The big days, today and Friday are jam-packed with Homecoming activities.

Today is Star Wars Dress-up Day, with the costume winner to be announced at the faculty pep assembly at 3 p.m. The day also features a powder-puff football game between freshmen and senior girls at 12:45 with a tug-of-war immediately following.

Friday will be Blue and Gold Dress-up Day, with students being served a continental breakfast in the cafeteria at 8:30 a.m. Buses leave Heppner High School for a down town pep assembly at 12:30. A school pep assembly will be followed by a parade through main street at 4 p.m., featuring class floats, the high school band and other student groups.

Homecoming football action with Lyle will begin at 8 p.m. with a big halftime show planned. The Homecoming dance is scheduled from 10:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.
