

Ione club attends garden workshop

The Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs Blue Mt. District Fall workshop was held October 26 at Milton-Freewater Presbyterian Church with Milton-Freewater club acting as host. Dorothy Heard, District Director, presided with 55 gardeners attending from the 12 district clubs including five members from Ione Garden Club; Jean Nelson, Judy Osmin, Helen Martin, Leila Palmer and Pat Pettyjohn.

Special guests included Mrs. Alice Elmstrom, Pacific Regional Director and Mrs. Edward Donahue, State Awards Chairman, Portland. Mrs. Elmstrom announced the placing of the Blue Star Markers as her regional project. Blue Star Markers are established at wayside rest areas on Oregon highways 99E, 99W, I-5, 80N, and 97, in cooperation with highway department. The markers are designated as living memorials in honor of members of the armed forces.

Leaders for the three workshops conducted were: "Awards," Mrs. Edward Donahue; "Birds," Mrs. Gladys Pryse, Dist. Bird Chairman; and "Mini Flower Shows," Miss Alma Rohrman.

A slide program on the highlights of the 1977 Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs state convention at Lincoln City was given by Mrs. Edward Donahue.

A mini flower show was evaluated by Mrs. Darrel Johnson, accredited judge from Prairie City. Helen Martin and Pat Pettyjohn entered five arrangements and brought home three first place awards and one second. Judy Osmin won a first on her foliage plant. Helen Martin, Edith Nicholson and Jean Nelson's 14 horticulture displays won several firsts. Members thought it a most unusual season for all the varied flowers displayed such as sweet peas, Easter Lily, carnations, Dahlias and many others.

An invitation was extended to all club members from the Pendleton Garden Club for the spring district meeting in April. Mrs. Elmstrom announced the 1978 State Convention will be held at the Portage Inn in The Dalles June 12-15.

Hospital Notes

Between Oct. 25 and Nov. 1 several patients were admitted to Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Heppner residents still in the hospital include Don Munkers, Florence Holt and Ted Schwartz. Ruth Robinson, Lexington; Sidney Zinter, Ione; and Christine Anderson, Ione, also remain patients.

Admitted and dismissed were Ben Spain, Monument; James Bloodsworth, Heppner; and Dale Montgomery, Lexington.

Heppner Happenings

Last Sunday the Heppner Rockhound Club had planned a day's outing to the John Day area fossil beds. However, many club members found other things to do that day and the groupouting plans fizzled. But Sally Mariatt, the Ed LaTraces and the Ed Gontys headed for the hills, anyway, on Sunday morning. They took their tailgate picnic lunch up into the Potamus area of Morrow's mountains. Somehow they ran out of marked roadway but after a bit of wandering around they found a sign and learned they were 16 miles from Ukiah. After lunch they proceeded to that community where they found E.V. Gonty Blevins and family at home. The five from Heppner enjoyed brownies and coffee with the Blevins family and returned home to Heppner before dark.

The travelers saw many elk hunters' camp in the mountains—several really big camps. One at Divide Wells "looked like a city."

Bill Weatherford, who has been hospitalized here six weeks, was taken to Portland by ambulance yesterday (Wednesday). He will be at the Emanuel Hospital for a re-evaluation of his case by a Portland oncologist and for possible treatment. When they left here Wednesday morning, the Weatherfords had no idea how long they would be in Portland.

Mark Brown recently returned to Heppner for a two-week vacation to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Brown. The younger Brown makes his home in Winslow, Wash. where he is a Washington State Trooper.

In mid-vacation, Brown flew to South Bend, Indiana to visit his brother, Army Captain Chris Brown, a Military Science teacher at Notre Dame. The two brothers watched the Fighting Irish upset USC on the football field.

Friends of Lola Breeding will be sorry to learn that she suffered a stroke last Saturday and is now hospitalized at Hermiston.

Mrs. Colleen Harris, who has been visiting her mother Edna Bailey, Heppner the past three weeks, left Pendleton Thursday by United Airlines for her home near Cheyenne Wyo.

Mrs. Guy F. Noe, Knoxville, Tenn., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E.V. Stingle, and family, and other relatives in the area for the past two weeks. This is her first visit for several years. She notes many new developments in the area, but also finds many things unchanged. She has enjoyed renewing acquaintances with many residents during her stay here, and met many new people who introduced themselves after hearing her "Tennessee accent".

October 25 the Degree of Honor Lodge in Heppner held a guest night. State Director Beatrice Clausen, Bend, was a special guest. President Shirley Connor conducted a short business meeting after which the members and guests enjoyed playing bingo and partaking of refreshments presented by Marjorie Worden, the evening's hostess.

The lodge announced plans for its annual Thanksgiving dinner Saturday evening, November 5, at 6:30 p.m. in the lodge hall. The main dish, chicken supreme, and hot rolls and coffee will be provided by the organization. Members and friends are invited to join in the occasion and to bring along potluck dishes. Entertainment is planned.
