Heppner places eight on All-Star roster

Two Mustangs were named to the first team Columbia Basin Conference all-star team and Heppner players received six second team honors. Senior Jim Wishart is the first team defensive end and Junior Bryan Marlin was tabbed as the league's number one punter.

Second team all-conference defenders from Heppner include: Marty Smith, line;

Joedy Marlatt, linebacker, Marlin, back; and Dennis Peck, back. On the second team offense, Heppner placed Ken Grieb at a line position and Marlin at running back. Bryce Powell was an honorable mention at defensive back.

In making the announcement at the HHS annual Fall Sports Dessert, Mustang coach John Sporseen said he was not satisfied with either the selections or the selection process used by the CBC coaches.

"Everyone on there from Heppner deserved it and some deserved more than they got," Sporseen said. "All four defensive picks should have been on the first team."

Sporseen said the Mustang defense was the best in the league and added that it didn't seem appropriate that three of Heppner's victims placed more players on the first team. Sherman County had seven first team members, Condon had six and Umatilla and three—despite the fact that all three of the teams lost to Heppner in league play this year.

"One of the reasons for the results was that we had a more balanced team while other schools relied on a few standout players," Sporseen said.

For the first time, coaches were allowed to pick members of their own teams for the all-star spots—a practice which Sporseen said he didn't agree with.
