Lexington news

Delpha Jones • 989-8189

Jason Roarke was a patient at a hospital in Pendleton last week where he underwent major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards were Pendleton callers Sunday where they met their daughter Janice. Janice flew in from North Carolina where she was getting acquainted with her niece, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wylie, born recently in that state. The young miss, named Jennifer Lynn is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Portland. Great-grandfather is A.M. Edwards and maternal grandmother is Sally Lowry, Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Karran and children of Pendleton were overnight guests of Florence McMillan, Mrs. Karran's grandmother.

The Amicitia Club met at the home of Barbara Cutsforth on Wednesday for their regular meeting. Winning high was Eileen Padberg, second high was Annetta Klinger. Traveling prize went to Eileen and Mildred Davidson.

Lovely refreshments were served.

Mrs. Cherry Harman and girls of The Dalles visited at the Dean Hunt home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson and son Herb were Portland callers over the weekend.

Lee Wagenblast is at her home after a few days spent in Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Gladys Van Winkle motored to Pendleton on Sunday where she visited Cleo Van Winkle who is very ill at St. Anthony's Hospital. Mr. Van Winkle is spending a couple of days with Mike Kane at their mountain cabin.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday for their regular meeting. Members were reminded of the food sale Wednesday and of their part in the Artfactory in Heppner. Plans were made for a Christmas pot luck and pinocle party Dec. 18 at the hall. Refreshments were

Methodists worship

A traditional Thanksgiving Eve Service featuring special music by the church choir will be held tonight (Wednesday, Nov. 23) at the Heppner United Methodist Church. Rev. Steve Tollefson and the served by Donna Papineau.

Betty Christman and Joan McDaniels flew from Pendleton to Boise last week where they visited Mrs. Christman's daughter, Jean. Leita Messenger has been confined to her home suffering from injuries sustained in a fall last week.

congregation invite everyone to join in this service of thanks for all of God's gifts as expressed in words and music. Nursery care will be provided for young children during the service.

Thanksgiving dinner

Everyone who might be spending Thanksgiving Day alone is reminded to come to the Episcopal Parish Hall for dinner. Come early and visit by the fireplace before the meal. Father Miller suggests that you call 676-9970 to let the planners know how many diners to expect.
