The Wheeler Dealers CB Club held their November meeting at the Masonic Hall on Friday evening. The members enjoyed a Thanksgiving potluck dinner before the business meeting.

Club President Catskinner (Dennis) Rogers reported that the CB radios donated for use in the Spray buses have been installed.

The members voted to donate $120 to help pay for the Wheeler High School Girls Basketball team. A donation was also sent to Pete and Bobbie Post whose home in Monument burned, leaving the Posts with very little clothing or other personal items. The members voted to hold a bingo party and pie auction with the proceeds going to the Al Kohler family. The exact time and place of the bingo party will be announced at a later date.

The club's December meeting will be a Christmas potluck at the Masonic Hall at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 15. The club will supply ham and turkey.

Members and those interested in learning more about the club are asked to bring two dishes enjoyed by their family during the holidays. Please remember table service. More information about the potluck or club membership can be obtained by calling Catskinner at 763-4903, Kingfish at 768-2861 or calling on CB channel 11 for any Wheeler Dealer.

Snow and icy roads slowed Thanksgiving travel almost to a stop this year. However a few hardy souls braved the elements to join family and friends for the holiday.

Jack and Sandy Williamson, Annette and Justin went to Portland to share the long holiday with Sandy's mother, Alice Allen, and her sister and brother-in-law, Kay and Elliott Derryberry, and their family.

Another family making the trip to Portland Wednesday was the Steve Conlees. They arrived in the Rose City in time to attend the Trailblazers game that evening with their hosts, the Jarrett Conlees. Friday Robbie went to the Jewish Community Center with his Uncle Jarrett where they watched the Trailblazers practice. Before leaving the Center Rob was very pleased to get Bobby Gross' autograph. Steve, Roberta and the boys left Portland Saturday and stayed that night at the home of Roberta's aunt and uncle, Lola and Jack Houshin in The Dalles.

Raymond and Deena Reid and daughters spent Thanksgiving in Hermiston with the Pete Peterson family. Also joining the sisters and their families was their brother, Robert Sinclair and his family, also from Hermiston.

Red Watts was in The Dalles to celebrate the holiday with his wife and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Stanton and Carol Norris went to Pendleton Nov. 22 where Carol entered Saint Anthony's Hospital. She had surgery the following day to remove a bone spur. Her husband, Earl, took her home Thursday. The Norris' arrived in Camp Five in time to have dinner at the home of Hershel and Betty Murdock. Carol is on crutches but seems to be getting around quite well—maybe it's all that practice she got when she injured her ankle originally.

Jack and Virginia Sitton were among those who stayed in Kinzua for the weekend. Joining them for dinner on Thanksgiving were their daughter, Rita Roy, and her husband, Rob, and his son, Wendal. Virginia's brothers, Bob Steagall, Albany; Willie Steagall, Lebanon, Dave Steagall, Portland; and their families were also dinner guests as was her mother, Cora Burnside, Spray.

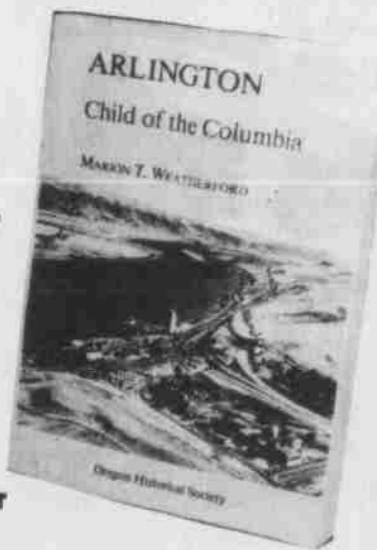

Others at the family dinner were Don and Jackie Nickelsen and their children, Brad and Tiffani, Jackie is the Sitton's daughter. The group was enlarged later in the evening by the arrival of the Sittos' son and family, Dave and Barbara and children Whitney and Torri.

Wranglers to hold Christmas party

The Heppner Wranglers will hold their annual Christmas party and potluck Sunday, Dec. 4, at 6:30 p.m. at the Catholic parish hall.

Election of officers for the coming year will be held, followed by a gift exchange for kids age 12 and under. Santa Claus will be there! Guests are welcome.
