• Barbara Pike • 768-2861

Howard and Jeanne Burch and their daughters Belinda and Jennifer have been in Kinzua the last couple weeks visiting with Jeanne's mother, Virginia Kelso. The Burchs, who have been living in Athens, Greece, are now spending some time in Hot Springs, Arkansas with Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Burch. Virginia is enjoying the company of her granddaughters while their parents are gone.

Billie Joe and Patsy McMinn and daughters Sheri and Brenda finished their move from Kinzua this weekend and are now at their new residence in Heppner.

Whitney and Torry Sittin were in Kinzua this weekend staying at the home of their grandparents, Jack and Virginia Sittin. The girls parents, Dave and Barbara Sittin, were in Pendleton to take care of some business and see Dave's sister and brother-in-law, Rita and Rob Roy.

Hershel Murdock was the Dalles Friday for medical attention.

A Thanksgiving visitor at the home of Vic and Marti Wallis and Nina Castle was Ruth Arthur from Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Also with the Wallis' and Nina for the holiday were Nina's sister and family, Gary and Pat Riley and daughter Sharon Hetzel from Seattle. Friday Nina and her mother, Mrs. Arthur, went to Bend to where they picked up Lonnie Collins. Lonnie had been in St. Charles Hospital recovering from his recent car accident. Lonnie is looking very good if you can overlook the hardware he is wearing. I understand he is in line for a new job—as a TV antenna. Hope he is able to shed that most uncomfortable looking brace soon.

Shirley Peterson, Peri and Mark, Hermiston, and Tweed Shaffer, Anchorage, Alaska, were guests at the Raymond Reid home Saturday and Sunday.

Glen Parsons, Charlie Stinson and two friends, all from Springfield, are guests of the Hershel Murdocks at Camp Five. They are in this area to take part in the antlerless elk archery hunt.

The Double Deck Card Club met Friday evening at the home of Virginia Sittin. Mel Bailey was the high winner for the evening. Hallie Spivey was second high winner. Vi Slinkard and Hallie Spivey won pinochles.

Other members present were Bonnie Campbell, Deena Reid, Roberta Conlee, Betty Sadler and Virginia.

The Kinzua TOPS Club are inviting all in the Kinzua-Camp Five area who are interested in helping themselves to a new slimmer figure and a healthier future to join them at Jeffmore Hall in Kinzua any Monday evening between 6:30 and 7 p.m. The weekly weigh-in is held during that half hour. It is followed by the business meeting and various programs to help members in their fight to overcome obesity.
