WHAT REALLY HAPPENED TO THE CLASS OF '65

Steve Allen (right) and Michael Lembeck star in a drama about Bret Harte High School's senior class comic who gets his big chance on a television talk show to score or flop in 'The Class Clown' on 'What Really Happened to the Class of '65,' Thursday, Jan. 26 on NBC-TV.

Nick Romansky (Lembeck) graduates and gets a job as a used car salesman. He's a top notch salesman, but he quits to put all his energy into comedy. He also puts off his marriage to Shelly (Robin Mattson). Then he begs TV talk show host Danny Mason (Allen) to give him a spot on his show.

Mason thinks Nick is not ready for the big time but gives him a chance to prove him wrong—or right.

THE KRAFT 75TH ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL

Personalities representing every facet of the entertainment world, ranging from Edgar Bergen who, with his Charlie McCarthy, is the personification of the golden age of radio in the 1930s, to Donna McKechnie, who reached stardom on Broadway in the 1970s, will join in the celebration on 'The Kraft 75th Anniversary Special' Tuesday, Jan. 24 on CBS-TV.

Live performances on the show include Leslie Uggams (left) singing a medley of songs made famous by Al Jolson; Broadway star Donna McKechnie (right) in a lavish production number recalling her days as a chorus dancer on many of the 'Kraft Music Hall' programs; and Alan King noting the progress man has made in household appliances, dating back from the old-fashioned ice box and hand-cranked can opener.

Also, Milton Berle and Bob Hope (center) combine their legendary comedic talents with hilarious results and Bob Crosby, Hal Peary and Edgar Bergen reminisce with Hope about the early broadcast years.
