How to Survive the Seventies

With the perception, humor and sophisticated style that characterize her multi-award-winning performances, Mary Tyler Moore takes a look at the vicissitudes of the current turbulent, changing decade in a fast-paced hour that combines song, dance, sketch and mime entitled Mary Tyler Moore's "How to Survive the '70s and Maybe Even Bump into Happiness," to be presented Wednesday, Feb. 22 on CBS-TV.

Guest stars Harvey Korman and John Ritter and several surprise guests join Miss Moore in her first television show since she wrapped up the highly successful seven-year run of "The Mary Tyler Moore Show."

Combining her talents as an actress and as a musical-comedy performer, Miss Moore and her guests touch upon most of "the things that are driving us crazy"—and many that are not—in this changing decade of stress, strain, "how to" books, singles bars, pollution, tennis, jogging, group therapy, far-out fashions, tough steaks and angry wasters.
