CBS: ON THE AIR

Salute the programming of CBS on Wednesday nights during its first 50 years when a lineup of guest stars joins hosts Walter Cronkite and Mary Tyler Moore for 'CBS: On the Air' Wednesday, March 29.

Wednesday's salute honors the lovable characters of Charles Schulz's comic strip 'Peanuts,' which spawned a continuing series of animated specials that have proven to be popular audience favorites over the years. 'Peanuts' animators Lee Mendelson and Bill Melendez have created special material for the gala hour.

Wednesday nights were also big in comedy and variety on CBS during the 1960s, so the list of co-hosts is quite appropriate. From left to right they are Dick Van Dyke (whose first comedy series was a Wednesday staple), Cicely Tyson, Buddy Ebsen (who was one of Wednesday's 'The Beverly Hillbillies' before becoming 'Barnaby Jones') and (seated) Danny Kaye (whose variety series during the 1960s ran for four seasons).
