A recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams was Mrs. Williams' sister, Roseann Hopkins, of Vallejo, Cal. The trio motored to Kellogg, Idaho last week to visit the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Appelberg. Mrs. Hopkins remained there for a visit before flying home later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christman from North Powder and house guests from Wasco recently visited at the home of Betty Christman. Other callers there over the Easter holidays were Jean from Boise and Carl from Eugene, each of them returning home Sunday. Carl is attending school in Eugene. Mrs. Christ-man and daughters Joan McDaniels and Jean motored to Hood River one day last week where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradd of Ontario and Linda VanWinkle of Santa Monica, Cal. were visitors with the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. VanWinkle. Linda returned to Portland Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards enroute to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger Sr. had as callers Easter Sunday a son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Messenger and girls from Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie of Boardman; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Botts and family; and Lois Connors and children from Heppner.

Charma Marquardt spent the Easter holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt. A sister, Norita, of Portland was a weekend visitor and the girls returned home together.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager and family of Hermiston and Lolita Marquardt of Portland were Sunday visitors at the Carl Marquardt home.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones and Florence McMillan were Hermiston visitors Sunday at the Stuart Smith home. Other callers that day were Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin and Billy Irvin of Boardman and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breeding of Hermiston.

Pat Wright, daughter Sandi, and Mrs. A.F. Majeske were Seaside and Newport visitors last week. They also visited Mrs. Wright's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounds in Portland. Lydia Wilson of Heppner motored to Portland with them to visit a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding.

PFC Tamara Hamilton completes training

Private First Class Tamara L. Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Snyder, Route 2, Irrigon, recently completed a food service specialist course at Ft. Jackson South Carolina.

The course trains personnel to prepare and serve food in large and small quantities. Students receive training in baking, field kitchen operations, and the operation of an Army dining facility.

PFC. Hamilton entered the Army in November 1977 after attending Oregon College of Education, Monmouth.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tom Muzzio, missionaries to Hong Kong will speak at the Assembly of God Sunday April 2 at 7 p.m. Pastor Allen Gordanier extends an invitation to all.

The Community Sunrise service, held Easter morning on the bank of the Columbia river in the Park, was well attended by the people of Boardman and Irrigon. It was a beautiful clear morning and most everyone agreed it was worth the effort to get to the early morning gathering. A continental breakfast of sweet rolls and coffee followed at the cafeteria of the school.

The children of the community gathered at the Park for the annual Easter egg hunt, sponsored by the Irrigon Lion's Club. Money prizes were given for certain marked eggs. The weather was perfect and a good time was had by all.

Hospital Notes

Two patients were admitted to Pioneer Memorial Hospital between Tuesday, March 21, and Tuesday, March 28. Both Roy Campbell, Lexington, and Laura Crawford, Condon, remained patients on Tuesday.

BIRTHS

The Morrow County stork brought two baby bundles to Pioneer Memorial Hospital last week to celebrate the first days of spring.

A daughter named Becky Ann was born to proud parents Mr. and Mrs. Steven Ray Wagenblast of Lexington on Wednesday, March 22, at 8:35 a.m. She weighed in at 8 pounds, 2½ ounces, joining a brother and sister in the Wagenblast household.

Becky's grandparents are Mrs. Lee Wagenblast, Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bardenhagen, Grass Valley.

Great-grandparents include Mrs. Carrie Wagenblast and Mrs. Marie Bardenhagen, both of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wayne Thomason of Boardman became the proud parents of a daughter named Barbara Ann on Saturday, March 25, at 7:11 a.m. The wee baby weighed 5 pounds 7 ounces at birth. A brother welcomes Barbara into the Thomason home.

Grandparents are Charles C. Thomason, Echo; Mr. and Mrs. John Manning, Boardman; and Patricia A. Jones, Burley, Id.

Ollie Wolff of Seattle, Wash., and Lillie Pine of Wendell, Id., are Barbara's great-grandparents.
