STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION
Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative, Columbia Power Cooperative and Wasco Electric Cooperative have filed with the Federal Government a Compliance Assurance in which they will comply fully with all requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Agriculture issued thereunder, to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in the conduct of programs and the operations of facilities. Under this Assurance, these organizations are committed not to discriminate against any person on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in the conduct of the operations of these organizations.

Any person who believes himself, or any specific class of individuals, to be subjected by these organizations to discrimination prohibited by Title VI of the Act and the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder may, by himself or a representative, file with the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, or the Rural Electrification Administration, Washington, D.C. 20520, or this organization, or all, a written complaint. Such complaint must be filed not later than 180 days after the alleged discrimination, or by such later date to which the Secretary of Agriculture or the Rural Electrification Administration extends the time for filing. Identity of complaints will be kept confidential except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the rules and Regulations.

Six young county livestock raisers honored at annual Pendleton Grain Growers meeting

Six Morrow County 4-H members and FFA students were among 22 trophy winners recognized at the 48th annual meeting of the Pendleton Grain Growers for having shown grand champion livestock in the past year.
At the March 18 annual meeting, PGG Livestock Fieldman Pete White presented the awards to the Morrow County contingent which included Mark Sargent, Mike Brosnan and Tony Currin, all from Heppner; Ken Grieb, Lexington, Carol McElligott, Ione; and Robert Richards, Irrigon.

Other grand champion showmen included: Coleen Baker, Suzanne Baker, Troy White, Ann Cherry and Rod McLaughlin, all from Hermis-

During the business portion of the meeting, PGG General Manager Don Cook reported earnings of $229,474 on sales of $59,841,444. Cook said the figure was not an adequate return on members' investment, but it was not unexpected in the poorest economic year for agriculture in the past decade.

Jim Rosenberg and John Walchli were re-elected to three-year terms as director at-large and Earl Sims was recognized for 25 years of service to PGG.

At the board meeting immediately following the stockholders meeting, Bill Etter was elected president, Gerald Terjeson, vice president; Don Cook, secretary-treasurer; John Amort, assistant secretary and Orville Gerberding, assistant treasurer.
