

Rodeo Club wins 3rd straight

Heppner High School's Rodeo Club has won its third first-place trophy in as many appearances on this season's Oregon high school rodeo circuit.

The third chapter in Heppner's perfect season record came last weekend at Chiloquin, where Mustang cowboys and cowgirls corralled a total of 105 team points—29 points ahead of second place Redmond.

Individual first-place winners on the Heppner squad included Ron Currin, who won the calf roping event with a red-hot time of 12.27 seconds, and Cindy Dougherty, who took first in the pole race in 20.45 seconds.

Janice Healy took second in the barrel race in 16.52 seconds, followed by teammates Jana Steagall in fourth with 16.67, Mary Daly, seventh, with 16.87 and JoLynn Daly tenth with 17.08.

Winning points in the breakaway event were Cindy Dougherty, who placed fifth, followed in eighth place by Maureen Healy, who traveled to Chiloquin following her weekend win in Portland as the state girls' high jump champion. In ninth place in the breakaway was her sister, Janice Healy, and finishing tenth was Jana Steagall.

Jana was also fifth in the pole race with a time of 20.45, followed by Maureen Healy in ninth place at 23.84 seconds.

The goat tying event saw Jana Steagall place fifth, followed in eighth by Cindy Dougherty.

In girls' team roping, the Heppner team of Steagall-Dougherty placed fourth in 17.52 time.

A third-fourth place tie in boys' cow cutting went to Tony Currin, with Janice Healy earning a second-third place tie in the girls' division.

Laurence Rice placed sixth in calf roping, with a time of 19.61 seconds.

In individual state high school rodeo standings thus far this season, Heppner girls fill the top three positions. Jana Steagall has a total of 77 individual points, followed by Cindy Dougherty with 62 and Janice Healy with 58½. Ron Currin is fourth in the boys' division, with 38 points.

In the separate events, Janice Healy is first in the state in barrel racing, followed by Jana Steagall in second. Cindy Dougherty is leading the state in the pole race, followed by Jana in a fourth-fifth place tie. Jana also stands second statewide in the breakaway event, and, teammate Dougherty, third in the state team roping competition.

Ronnie Currin currently holds second place in calf roping and third in bulldozing. Tony Currin and Jana Steagall each stand third in cow cutting in their respective divisions.

Cardinals attain win column in final game of '78 season

The final game of the season turned out to be the best for the Ione Cardinals.

Ione ended up in the win column for the first time in 1978 conference play by performing good defensive baseball and containing errors to two. The final score was 4-2.

The Friday win was particularly sweet for Cardinal junior Kevin McCabe, who pitched the entire game, striking out eight Wasco County batters, then took his turn at the plate to slam four hits in four attempts, driving in two runners in the process.

The game was scoreless until the third inning, when Ione's Les Thompson walked, advanced on a sacrifice fly by Robin LaRue, then scored on a single by McCabe.

Wasco came back in its half of the third to score two runs, but the Cards went back on top in the fifth. The two runs scored in the fifth came after two outs, when Robin LaRue took first after being hit by a pitch, then was advanced to third on another McCabe single. Sean LaRue stepped to the plate to drive the baserunners home.

The cake was iced in the seventh inning, after Treve Peterson punched out a single, then was driven home by another Kevin McCabe base hit.

Things are expected to pick up for the Cards next season, when all players except graduating senior Brian Rietmann are expected to return.

Dodgers lead standings in Little League action

With the Willow Creek Little League program moving into its third week, the Dodgers lead the standings with a record of five wins and no losses, as of the start of this week.

The Braves were trailing in second place with a 3-3 record, followed by the Giants at 2-2 and the Indians at 0-5.

On Monday, the Braves scalped the Indians by a 21-8 margin. During action last Thursday the Dodgers outdistanced the Giants 14-3.

Upcoming Little League

action will include a contest tonight, May 25, between the Giants and Braves; a May 29 meeting of the Dodgers and Indians; and a May 25 game between the Giants and the Braves.

All games will begin at 6 p.m.
