Beverley Flint and small daughter Sadi from Beaverton, and Anita Davidson from Eugene were callers at the home of the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson. They attended graduation exercises in Pendleton for Margy Viall, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson.

Anita Davidson is visiting in San Jose, Calif., prior to leaving for Alaska, where she will be employed as a Campfire counselor for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt recently visited in Napa, Calif., and attended the graduation of their grandson.

Hazel Jackson of Kinzua has been visiting her sisters, Gladys Van Winkle and Dorothy Edwards and families.

Luren Mailey of Condon was a Lexington and Ione business visitor one day last week.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Patricia Wright and family for Memorial Day and graduation were Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer Wright from Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mounts and family of Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, Sr. had as weekend visitors their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Messenger and Jerry Messenger of Portland.

Visitors at the Carl Marquardt home over the weekend were Lolita, a daughter from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager and family of Hermiston.

Florence McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Michael, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Gresham attended the wedding reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bowen at the Elks Club in Hermiston on Friday evening. Vicky Walden and Jim Bowen were married at a 5 p.m. ceremony at the First Christian Church in Hermiston. Attending the couple were Frank Wilcox and Charlene Whitney of Portland. One of the highlights of the evening was a donkey cart ride from the church to the club for the couple and attendants. The cart was made as a joke for the couple by friends from Hermiston. The cart was powered by a donkey named Snuff that moved only when fed marshmallows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin and the granddaughter of Florence McMillan.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Marquardt and family of Connell, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis and family from Oklahoma and Norita and Charma Marquardt from Portland.

Visiting at the Joe Yocum home for graduation were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones of Hillsboro. Returning home with them was their small daughter Jane who has been visiting the last two weeks with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson from Hood River and daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Don McTavish and infant daughter Marissa, Gresham were visiting friends in Lexington on Sunday.

Weekend callers at the C.C. Jones ranch were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Whitney, Charlene and Kim Whitney and Frank Wilcox of Portland, and Saturday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith and children of Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin of Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards and family and Gladys Van Winkle visited the ladies' mother Sally Lowry and other members of the family at Mt. Vernon over the weekend.

Terrance Kane and fiancée of San Francisco were weekend callers at the Mike Kane home.

Kinzua news

Barbara Pike 768-2861

Things are changing here in Kinzua. The end of the school year and the closure of the mill have resulted in a number of families leaving Kinzua in the last couple of weeks. Several others are preparing to move soon. The number of empty homes in town increases daily. However you don't want to count us out just yet. Several families in town will be working for Hardwick Logging and will stay in Kinzua-Camp Five.

The town of Heppner will be the new home of many Kinzua families. Among those who have moved to Heppner in the last couple weeks are Raymond and Deena Reid and daughters and Gordon and Shirley Orr and children. The Troy Days will be moving to Heppner shortly as will several others when they are able to find housing.

Burns is the new home of the Larry Morleys. Hershel Murdock and Verlin Conner are both working in Tygh Valley. The Murdocks have purchased a home and are in the process of moving. The Conners have moved their travel trailer to Tygh Valley. Lavina spent part of last week there with her husband before returning to Kinzua on Sunday.

Hardwick Logging has been growing by leaps and bounds lately. The crew employed by Hardwick has grown from 16 to 33 at the last count and shows little sign of slowing down. The company has moved their office from the Hardwick home to the offices formerly occupied by Eastern Oregon Logging at Camp Five. The phone number for the company will remain the same.

A family get-together was held in Kinzua this weekend when sisters, Vi Slinkard and Naoma Rice and their families were visited by several of their brothers and sisters. The group included Paul and Mavis Oyler, Bend; Kenneth and Shirley Hollman, Tulsa, Oklahoma; John and Carmen Oyler, Gravette, Arkansas; Melvin and Mary Tucker and family, Cherryvale, Kansas. The Rices' daughter and her family, Linda and Larry Conklin and Dustin, Prineville, were also here for the weekend. The Tuckers and the Conklins left for home on Sunday. The other visitors are flying home Tuesday.

Rita and Cindy Bowman went to Pasco Friday to attend high school graduation for Rita's niece, Leslie Bowlin. The Bownmans returned home Saturday. Brian Say, Prineville, spent the weekend visiting at the Bowman home.

associate in science; Mary Ann Munkers, BMCC, associate in arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Froberg plan to leave Irrigon within the week for Conley, Ga., near Atlanta. They expect to spend a year with their son Bob and his family there. They also have reservations to attend the PTL Club, a well-known Christian television broadcasting station, in Charlotte, N.C., during the month of August.

Morris and Peggy Burnett have rented the Froberg's farm home and will care for it in their absence. Peggy is Mrs. Froberg's niece.

The Rev. Don Smith of East Umatilla ministered at the Irrigon Assembly of God on Sunday, at both morning and evening services. Pastor and Mrs. Allen Gordanier and family are on vacation visiting relatives in Eugene and Calif.

Five graduating seniors were honored during the Sunday morning service on May 28. The church then had a potluck dinner honoring the Frobergs who are leaving for a year. The afternoon was

Horse-A-Thon raises $900 for Cystic Fibrosis research

Nearly $900 was raised by area horseback riders during a recent 12-mile "Horse-A-Thon" for Cystic Fibrosis. A total of 25 youthful riders took part in the event. Peggy Lauritsen raised the most pledge money—$140—followed by Bobette Angell, who collected $110 in pledges.

All totaled, the Morrow County riders collected $894 to aid in combatting the disease.

Anhorns travel to Rouge Valley area

Irene Anhorn returned home Sunday evening June 4 after spending several days in the Rogue Valley where she formerly lived. She accompanied her daughter Catherine of Pendleton to Medford on Friday where they stayed with a son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Anhorn and daughter Patricia.

Saturday in Central Point they joined in the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. John Anhorn's 50th wedding anniversary. This was also the occasion for a reunion of all of Irene's family with their cousins John, Myrtle, Melvin and families.

Joe Bowmans announce child's birth

Joe and Robin Bowman, Portland, are proud to announce the birth of their second child on May 4th at U of O Medical Center. Natalie Elizabeth weighed in at a healthy 8 pounds 1/2 ounce and was 19 1/2 inches long.

The tiny girl was welcomed by an older sister, Erika, 4 1/2. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Bowman, Kinzua; and Mrs. Margaret Hesla, Portland. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lytton Strom, Castle Rock, Washington and Mrs. George Miles, Portland.
