

Morrow County Babe Ruth team now in first, 8-2

A 5-3 victory over Pacific Power and Light of Hermiston in lone Tuesday night expansion led the Morrow County Babe Ruth baseball team's first-place lead over league challengers. Tuesday's contest left Morrow County with an 8-2 record thus far in the 16-game season. Despite the score, Tuesday's game was something of a pitcher's duel, with Morrow County's ace hurler John Bier logging 10 strikeouts and giving up no hits until the sixth Earl Hammond belted a two-run scoring double, and another double was tagged by teammate Jeff Hams.

On Monday, a road trip to Hermiston netted Morrow County a 10-6 win over Sports Village. Batting told the story of that game, although Morrow County's Craig Gutierrez gave up only one hit in his four innings at the mound.

Rick Cole tagged his first home run of the season for Morrow County, in addition to swatting out two other hits in four trips to the plate. Cole batted in a total of four runs.

Another Morrow County hitting standout was John Murray, who was 3 for 3, with 3 RBIs. Other local youngsters tallying hits included Mary Kincaid and Don Taylor. All in all, Morrow County belted 10 hits to 2 for Sports Village. But errors were a factor, as only one of the Hermiston team's six runs was earned.

Last Thursday, PP&L was also the center of attention for the Morrow County team. A that time, Morrow County was tied at 5-2 with the Hermiston team for first place in league standings.

Morrow County prevailed in that contest, ending up with a 9-6 victory.

Rick Cole went five innings for Morrow county, striking out three, and picking off three baserunners. He was relieved by John Bier. Only two of PP&L's six runs were earned.

Morrow County outthrew Hermiston squad 6-4. All but one of the Morrow County hits were singles. The lone extra base hit was a double by Shawn LaRue. Gregg Rietmann was 3 for 4, with 2 RBIs. Other hitters included Doug Holland and Rick Cole.

inning. PP&L's Pesika was credited with five strikeouts, which accounted for all but one of Morrow County's outs in the final two innings.

The Hermiston team threatened in the final inning of play, when with bases loaded and two men out, a PP&L hitter punched out a triple scoring three runs.

"Both teams played great baseball," commented Morrow County Manager Jim Swanson. "We had exceptional fielding, only giving up one error, and managed to chip away at them with our hitting."

Morrow County batter Shawn LaRue connects with the ball during a Tuesday night contest with Pacific Power and Light of Hermiston, during a Babe Ruth League home game in lone. Morrow County now leads the league standings.

HHS Rodeo Club's perfect season ends

Heppner High School's rodeo club lost a bid for its fifth consecutive first-place trophy of the season during action last weekend in Madras.

The Mustangs finished second to Redmond, despite outstanding performances by several local cowboys and cowgirls—including an all-around cowgirl win by Janice Healy.

Even with the second place finish, Heppner stands well ahead of all challengers in the statewide high school rodeo competition, with only two meets remaining this season.

During the Madras rodeo, all-around trophy winner Janice Healy took first in both the breakaway roping and barrel race, and third in cow cutting. Ron Currin was first place finisher in the bulldogging event, with brother Tony winning the boys' cow cutting division.

Cindy Dougherty was sixth in the breakaway and won first place in the pole race. Jana Steagall took fourth in the poles and ninth in breakaway roping. Lawrence Rice finished fourth in the bareback bronc event, and Maureen Healy earned ninth place points in goat tying.

The Heppner team will take part in two more rodeos—in Vale and in Redmond—before the regular season ends.
