

Morrow County three learn politics firsthand at 1978 Oregon Girls State

Three Morrow County girls were among the 274 citizens of Oregon Girls State 1978, held June 11-16 on the Willamette University campus in Salem. Oregon Girls State is an annual program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Oregon, for outstanding young women who have just completed their junior year of high school. Through participation in simulated governments on the city, county and state levels, girls state citizens learn about the democratic process of government.

Cindy Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kerr, Heppner, was elected to the Girls State House of Representatives. She also served as an alternate to one of the two party nominating conventions at Girls State. Cindy, who will be a senior at Heppner High in the fall, was sponsored by Heppner Unit No. 87, the American Legion Auxiliary. Janet McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McElligott, Ione, was also elected to the 72-member House of Representatives. She served as mayor of one of twelve hypothetical cities at Girls State, and made an unsuccessful bid for State Treasurer. Michelle McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don McElligott, Ione, was elected an alternate to one of the party nominating conventions. She was appointed to her county's election board for the General Election at Girls State.

Janet and Michelle will attend Ione High School in the Fall. They were sponsored by Ione Unit No. 95, the American Legion Auxiliary.

Claude Crawford as pastor. The original church building was remodeled in 1944-45 while the Rev. Emil Schneider was pastor. In January of 1946 this church and the parsonage burned to the ground. By fall of that year a new church had been erected at approximate cost of $4,500. Volunteer labor helped keep cost down and the congregation free of debt. The parsonage was completed for occupancy in 1950, with Pastor and Mrs. Leland Morse and family being the first to live there.

Plans for the new building call for a 92' by 60' edifice of 5,520 square feet. Parking facilities will be provided on the same side of the street. A transfer of property has been made to make this possible. The church traded two lots, recently acquired for two lots adjoining the church property.

Irrigon news

• Francis Rose Wilson • 922-3352

The Irrigon Assembly of God church has broken ground for a new church building. The architect's plans have gone to an engineer for his approval, then as soon as permits are obtained construction will begin on the new building. It is felt by the congregation that with increasing population in the area, a larger church and more adequate Sunday School classrooms are needed. The church was started in Irrigon by the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Alquist in 1929. It was set in order as an Assembly of God in 1935 with the Rev.

Anita Davidson injured in Alaska

Anita Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson of Lexington, suffered a broken leg while serving as a counselor at the Campfire Girls' camp at Cooper Landing, Alaska.

Anyone wishing to write may contact her in care of Campfire, Cooper Landing, Alaska, 99572.

Anita has returned to her counseling duties from an Alaska hospital, where she was treated for the injury. Her leg remains in a cast, so her activities are limited.
