Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger Sr. over the weekend were a son and grandson, Franklin and Jay Messenger from Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Messenger and son of Portland. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark and children of Portland stopped for a short visit enroute to Hermiston where they will be opening a Clark's shoe store in the new shopping center there. Mrs.

Clark is the former Rosetta Laney, a former resident of Lexington, and a sister of Mrs. Gerry Messenger. Millie and Marie Yocom were Portland visitors over the weekend.

Florence McMillan was a recent overnight visitor at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin of Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Zita were weekend callers in Heppner and Lexington from their home in Beaverton. Jack Yocom is visiting in Calgary, Canada and attending the Calgary Stampede with friends. Lolita Marquardt, who is employed in Portland, was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt. She attended the shower in Heppner for her sister Carlita, bride-elect of Jim Bloodsworth. Kevin and Lance Klinger from Brush Prairie, Wash. are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ledbetter, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Klinger. June DuVall and daughter Renee of Seattle are visiting friends and relatives in Lexington and Heppner, including Mrs. DuVall's mother Cleo VanWinkle, who is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Nursing home. The Betty Christman home was the scene Monday of a luncheon and birthday party honoring Mrs. Riley (Beebe) Munkers of Heppner. Those present were Camilla Samples, Gladys VanWinkle, Faye Seitz, Betty Christman and the honoree. Mrs. Tom Bradd of Ontario is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gladys Van Winkle.

Arllett and Bonnie Campbell spent the weekend at Haystack Lake near Madras enjoying the sun and water skiing. They were joined by Arlett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Campbell, Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Nicklas and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Nicklas, both of Redmond, are Arlett's sisters.

Arden and Marian Tripp are back home following a trip to the Oregon coastal area with their son Tom and his family. The Tripps returned to Kinzua on Thursday. The Tom Tripps left the first of July for their home in Laurel, Montana. Arden and Marian are staying busy these days as they are looking around the Heppner area for housing. Arden, who has been unable to work for some time following surgery, will soon be going to work as a fireman at Kinzua Corporation's Heppner plant.

Don and Rose Hardwick spent the long Fourth of July weekend in Baker visiting friends and relatives. While in Baker Don attended the class reunion held in celebration of the 30th Anniversary of his high school graduation. This Thursday, the Hardwicks were in Pendleton on business.

Dee and Deena Whitney have moved into the home formerly occupied by the Glenn Spivey family. The young couple is from Patterson, Washington. Dee is working for Greenup Tree Thinning. He is familiar to many here since he lived with his cousin, Roberta Conlee, about five years ago while a senior at WHS.
