Kinzua suffers loss to Stockdale Realty

Stockdale Realty took an early lead and went on to defeat Kinzua 7-2 last Tuesday night in Hermiston. This was Kinzua's second loss. Kinzua had 13 hits but could only manage to score two runs. Stockdale scored two runs in the first, one in the second and two in the third before Kinzua could get on the scoreboard. Kinzua's first run came in the fourth on a triple by John McCabe. Gary Kemp knocked McCabe in as he tagged one of his three hits logged during the game. The last run was in the fifth for Kinzua when Delbert Binschus scored. Dave Eckman and Jamie Sands were left on base. Stockdale sewed up the win as Stockdale added two more runs in the sixth. Kinzua had only seven hits but managed to use good defense as they dropped Roemarks 3-2 in a game played last Wednesday in Hermiston. This was Roemarks first loss of the second half of season play. Kinzua held Roemarks scoreless till the fifth. Kinzua scored in the first when Jamie Sands hit a single and Keith Curnutt got on base with a walk. John McCabe's single knocked in Sands while Mike Rowell's sacrifice fly scored Curnutt. Gary Kemp was left on base. Kinzua scored its last run in the sixth when Keith Curnutt crossed the plate. Other batters who failed to score but had hits were Buck Query, Delbert Binschus, Gary Kemp and John McCabe.
