We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many volunteers and the Lexington Fire Department for their efforts in extinguishing the fire we experienced.
Coetta & Eric DeBraul

We would like to thank all the relatives and friends for the loving thoughts and many acts of kindness of food, cards, flowers and other remembrances we have received.
We would also like to thank Dr. Wolff, Karmon Bjella and the hospital staff for the wonderful care Bill received. The Family of William Brinda

We wish to thank the nurses, hospital staff and Dr. Tibbles for all the wonderful care Nora received while in the nursing home.
We also appreciate the cards, flowers and donations we received in her memory. Thanks also to the Heppner Altar Society who served such a wonderful meal to the family and friends after the services. The family of Nora Turner

The family of Ruth Van Winkle would like to thank everyone who has helped our family through her illness.
We appreciate all the cards, flowers, food, donations and kind words.
The staff of nurses were very helpful and always there when we needed them. They all made her more comfortable and made things easier for our family.

A special thanks goes to Dr. Carpenter and especially Dr. Diehl, who helped our whole family through our ordeal.
We also want to thank Ilene Laughlin while she was up there for caring.
A very special thanks also goes to Dr. Wolff who filled in when the doctors left. He performed a very dedicated and unselfish service for our family.

The people who served the dinner after the funeral were much appreciated and very thoughtful.
Heartfelt thanks from the family of Ruth Van Winkle.
We also want to thank Ilene Laughlin while she was up there for caring.
