

Candidates Fair set for Nov. 2 at BMCC

Candidates Fair has been set for Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m. in Blue Mountain Community College's Morrow Hall lecture room.

Local, county and state candidates will have five minutes to describe their reasons for running for public office.

Moderator for the evening will be Blaine Hanks, BMCC broadcasting instructor. No formal presentations will be given on the ballot measures, although these topics may come up in the question-answer period following the speeches.

The forum is being sponsored by the Pendleton branch of American Association of University Women. Helping them are the League of Women Voters and the East Oregonian.

Chairing the event is Ann Schwandt. Her committee includes Mary Davis, Janet Groat and Amy Bedford as well as other volunteers from the groups involved.

A reception will follow the fair where the public will have a chance to talk personally with the candidates
