

Bud Englert and Tammy Rupes stand ready to serve customers entering Heppner Family Savings—a new grocery store located in the old Thomson Bros. Grocery building. Owned by a Heppner corporation, the store will feature shelf-shopping and case and half-case lot purchases.

New grocery store opens here

A new business has opened its doors in Heppner in the same line and location as Thomson Brothers Grocery, which closed earlier this year. Heppner Family Savings—a grocery store—opened Monday in the Thomson Bros.

location, and will feature case and half-case lots of grocery items in addition to a complete line of shelf items. No fresh meat or produce items will be carried, according to Bud Englert, one of the store owners and manager of the operation.

"We will carry a variety of canned goods, frozen foods, dairy products and some household items at the lowest possible prices," said Englert. "We also encourage customers to check the savings on case and half-case purchases."

The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday. A corporation comprised of Englert, Bob Laughlin, Dale Adler, all of Heppner, and Bob Journot, of Hermiston, owns the store. Bill Huss of Heppner is currently training to take over management of the store.

Music highlights BMCC activities schedule

A full calendar of music activities is planned by the instrumental and vocal departments at Blue Mountain Community College during November and December.

Hermiston High's Jazz Festival will feature BMCC's Pop-Vocal Ensemble as the only guest choir at the competition. The 22-member ensemble includes 16 vocalists and six instrumentalists. Randy Bowman, of Pendleton, will be a soloist with the BMCC group.

Dave Miller, vocal instructor at BMCC, will be one of the adjudicators of the festival. Also judging will be Doug Anderson from McMinnville High School, past president of the Oregon Music Educators Association.

Preliminary competition for the high school groups at the jazz contest will run from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Armand Larive Junior High Auditorium. BMCC will perform during the evening finals which begin at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, Nov. 19, will be the instructors turn to perform in a Faculty Recital. The performance is scheduled for 3 p.m. in Pioneer Hall Theatre.

Performing will be John Weddle, instrumental instructor playing the clarinet and Miller singing. A trio composed of Loree Tucker-McKenna, cello; Paul Heisler, piano; and Chris Bonds, violin will play a Beethoven piece.

Especially exciting to the BMCC music groups this year is the prospect of a trip to Hawaii for national competition.

Last year at the same contest held in Los Angeles, BMCC Pop-Vocal Ensemble took top honors in competition against four-year colleges as well as other community colleges.

The Hawaiian trip is scheduled for April 17-24 and the BMCC music groups are setting up money raising projects. "There is no institutional money used so we need to raise $416 for the 31 choral people who are going at this time," Miller noted.

The jazz band is awaiting judgement in on a tape they sent to audition for the competition. Swing Choir and Chorale did not have to try out because of their high rating last year.

Projected money raising activities include selling firewood, Christmas trees and singing Christmas cards. They also plan an auction, racquetball tournament, three-on-three basketball tournament and out-of-town discos.

December concerts for the BMCC music groups include a Dec. 1 concert featuring Jazz Band and Swing Choir at 7:30 p.m. in Pioneer Hall Theatre.

College-Community band and orchestra will perform Dec. 3 at 3:15 p.m. in Pioneer Hall Theatre. The Chorale Christmas concert is set for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 7 in Pioneer Hall Theatre also.

Earlier this month the BMCC Chorale, Pop-Vocal Ensemble and Jazz Band traveled to Weston-McEwen High School for a joint concert with the school choir there. Other high school visits will be planned during the year.

Concerts at the college are free.

Hospital Notes

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial Hospital this past week and still receiving care are: Kevin Renshaw, Lexington, Vernon Gilman and Bob De Spain, both of Heppner.

Admitted and later discharged this past week were: Clarence Cress, Spray; Michael Parker, Hermiston; Mark Rugg, Boring; Rick Paige, Gresham; Vanda Burkenbine and Vivian Hayes, both of Heppner.

Area police busy over weekend

A large electric generator and a set of come-along winching tools were stolen from a pumphouse at Boardman Ready-Mix last week, sheriff's deputies reported.

The equipment, valued at about $1,750, was owned by Frontier Construction Co.

A chain saw was stolen from a carport at the Scott Madison Ranch on upper Rhea Creek last Friday.

Morrow County Sheriff's deputies said that a man believed to have taken the saw was seen attempting to load a washer and dryer from the Madison home into a red Ford pickup. The suspect fled the scene without taking the appliances.

Kevin Renshaw, 15, of Lexington, was listed in stable condition at Pioneer Memorial Hospital, after the bicycle he was riding was struck by a car on Hwy. 74 midway between Heppner and Lexington on Sunday.

Witnesses told sheriff's deputies that Renshaw rode into the path of an eastbound car driven by Elizabeth Ferguson, 56, of Hermiston. Mrs. Ferguson told deputies she was traveling about 45 miles per hour at the time of the collision.

Renshaw struck the car's hood and windshield before falling to the highway pavement. The youth suffered severe head injuries.

Mark Lee Pace, 18, of Umatilla, and Michael Parker, 19, of Hermiston, escaped serious injury when the truck in which they were riding veered out of control and rolled off Willow Creek Road, about eight miles east of Heppner last Friday afternoon.

The truck, driven by Pace, was forced onto the highway shoulder by an oncoming car that veered left of the center stripe, according to a sheriff's report on the accident. The vehicle rolled four times before coming to a rest.

Alena Anderson of Heppner received a broken collar bone and superficial injuries last Thursday, when the car in which she was a passenger collided with a vehicle operated by Laverne Hams of Ione at the junction of Hwy. 207 and Hwy. 320 in Umatilla County, state police at Hermiston said.

The match is sanctioned by the International Table Tennis League, a private organization that promotes professional table tennis.

Tickets for the match and luau can be purchased in Heppner at Murray's Drug, Cole's House of Fashion, Heppner Family Savings and Black Mt. Repair in Hermiston, tickets can be purchased at Roemark's Men's Wear.

Other city and county offices in the local area were uncontested.

Morrow voters follow statewide trends

Senate race, and in the campaign for U.S. Representative, incumbent Al Ullman polled 1,502 votes to 603 for Republican challenger Terry Hicks.

Ballot measure six, the California-style property tax relief initiative, went down by a 1,165 to 910 margin in Morrow County. Measure 11, the legislative alternative, was rejected 1,324 to 723. Morrow County voters favored the return of capital punishment allowed under Measure 8 by a 1,568 to 512 margin, but rejected state-funded abortions—Measure 7—1,090 to 1,000.

In the only county race to receive contention, Republic-
