attend Spokane meeting

Three directors of the Federal Land Bank Association of Pendleton joined more than 200 directors of 39 other associations in the Northwest on Nov. 8 and 9 to attend the 28th Annual Federal Land Bank Association Directors Conference at the Ridpath Hotel in Spokane, according to Robin A. Fletcher, Association Manager.

The two day meeting was conducted by the Federal Land Bank of Spokane. Directors attending from the Pendleton Association were Milton Morgan of Ione, Edwin Miller Jr. of Heppner and Richard Wilkinson of Heppner.

The association directors heard a keynote address given by Dr. Don Paarlberg, Professor Emeritus from Purdue University. Dr. Paarlberg, who teaches courses in Ag Policy and Research methods, presented "Outlook for the 80's." Paarlberg had held appointments from three presidents: Eisenhower, Nixon and Ford, having been assistant to the President, coordinator of the Food-Fer-Peace Program, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture and Director of Agricultural Economics. He also has served as economics advisor to four Secretaries of Agriculture: Benson, Hardin, Butz and Knebel.

The directors, who are elected to their association board by borrower-members, also heard Federal Land Bank President A. Wayne Neel give an overview of the Spokane Land Bank's operations. The Federal Land Bank of Spokane extends long-term real estate mortgage credit through its 40 associations to over 32,000 farmers, ranchers and rural home owners in Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Alaska.

The Pendleton Federal Land Bank Association provides long-term real estate mortgages credit to farmers, ranchers and rural home owners in Umatilla and Morrow counties.

typical square legged Asian stance. Sears also has wins over 1977 world professional title holder Tom Ruttinger, as well as a long list of Asian champions. He is a right hander and uses a penholder grip.

Judy Bochenski

Judy Bochenski, before turning pro, represented the United States' team on a Ping Pong Diplomacy trip to the Peoples Republic of China in 1972.

She has participated in almost every U.S. open, is currently training in the Far East and is the third member of the Royal Haitian team. It was her spectacular win over Tom Ruttinger that turned the tide with the Royal Haitian team defeating the United States in last year's world title event.

Judy is one of the top players in the world and originally hailed from Salem, Oregon. She uses the traditional handshake grip and puts terror in the hearts of most of her male counterparts with her right hand over-hand smashes.
