

Lt. Randolph Allen joins in practice mission

First Lieutenant Randolph P. Allen, son of Mrs. Dixie L. Allen of Heppner, recently participated in "Giant Voice," the Strategic Air Command's bombing and navigation competition held at Barksdale AFB, La.

Lieutenant Allen is an electronic warfare officer at Barksdale AFB, La., with the 2nd Bomb Wing.

Giant Voice was conducted to improve bombing and navigational operating procedures and techniques. It also tested the readiness and overall ability of individual crews to perform their primary mission.

Also taking part in the competition were crews from the Tactical Air Command, Air Force Reserve, Air National Guard and the British Royal Air Force Strike Command.

Sgt. Hobbs is assigned to Scott AFB

U.S. Air Force Master Sergeant Daryl F. Hobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Hobbs of Irrigon, has arrived for duty at Scott AFB, Ill.

Sergeant Hobbs, an electronic communications and cryptographic equipment systems technician with a unit of the Air Force Communications Service, previously served at Torrejon AB, Spain.

The sergeant is a 1960 graduate of Riverside High School in Boardman.

Foreign language resource list is made

A list of resource people competent in a foreign language is being developed by Blue Mountain Community College.

The foreign language resource list is being kept and updated in the college library. At present, the list includes people with a knowledge of Czechoslovakian, East Indian dialects, French, German, Italian, Russian, Spanish and Vietnamese as well as Signing for the Deaf.

Head librarian Mary Bates is interested in expanding the list to include people both in and outside of Pendleton who know a foreign language.

Resource lists are available to anyone requesting them. For information about the list or to suggest an addition to the list, call the BMCC library at 276-1260, ext. 234. Letters may be sent to Blue Mountain, P.O. Box 100, Pendleton, Or 97801.

Lexington news

• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

The Morrow County Fair Committee has had a busy month. On Sunday, Dec. 10, the committee met at the home of Marv Clarkson, in Irrigon. Mrs. Lyle (Virginia) Peck Lexington, was welcomed as a new member. Since the meeting, Cliff Williams, Lexington, has also accepted an appointment as a new member.

On the previous Wednesday, Dec. 6, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rauch drove to Portland where the women were delegates to the State Fair Board Convention, held at the Thunderbird at Jantzen Beach. They reviewed different types of fair programs and available talent. They also studied problems of fairs, such as admissions, percentages, etc.

They heard reports from state lobbyists, legislators and state racing reports.

Monday, Dec. 11, at the fair board meeting, the fair committee presented their budget for the forthcoming year.

The date set for the second Lumberjack Show is April 21.

Grange members attend Boardman rite

Last Sunday, twelve Lexington Grange members attended installation of officers ceremonies at Greenfield Grange, Boardman.
