

Cards outgunned by North Powder

By Janet McElligott
The Cardinal hoop squad is beginning to feel the effects of their winning football season, said Ione Head Coach Del LaRue.
"We had to come down from two weeks ago. Everyone has been really mentally tough for so long. We had to be so high so long," explained LaRue.
The Cards had an all-around poor night Saturday. Not one player was "hot." It was a "total disaster night" for the Redbirds, LaRue said.
Ione varsity fell to North Powder 80-41. The Badgers must have been seeking revenge for the two losses they suffered to the Ione football team.
"We lacked concentration," admitted Coach LaRue. "We were all really loose, but nothing fell." The Cards shot a 29 per cent field goal average to North Powder's 44 per cent. "That's a good percentage for a high school team," LaRue said.

Ione had only one man in double figures, a far cry from the 4 men of last week's play. Kevin McCabe led the scoring charge for the Cards with 14, followed by three men with six, Dennis Stefani, Daniel McElligott and Gregg Rietman. Robin LaRue pegged 4, while Glen Krebs and Shawn LaRue added 2 each and Leslie Thompson brought up the rear with 1.
The night was not all lost for the Cards. They out-rebounded their opponents 34-32.
The Ione boys weren't the only one's that suffered at the hands of the North Powder players, as the girls fell 58-22.
"North Powder has a tall, quick, good ball-handling club," said Ione Coach Martha Doherty. "We played real good ball the first quarter and pretty good ball the second quarter, but we lost our sharpness in the third quarter," said the Ione coach.
"We were out-rebounded," said the Coach, "but considering the height disadvantage, I really think we did a good job under the boards."

"We went up against one of the best," said Coach Doherty. "The whole team did a good job, it was one of our better efforts."
The Cards shot a 62.5 per cent average from the free-throw line, compared with North Powder's 52.6 per cent. One of the North Powder girls had an extremely good night, as she scored a total of 25 points—23 for her team and 2 for the Cards by mistake.
Michelle McElligott led the Ione scoring attack with seven points, followed by Martha McElligott and Anita Palmer with four each. Janet McElligott and Lori Edwards each had two, and Sandra Thompson ended the scoring with one point.
Last Tuesday, the Cardinal-ettes squeaked by Riverside, making the team one-and-one for the week.
"I think that we were well matched with height and experience," said Coach Martha Doherty of the Riverside game. "It was a real rough game, and especially under the boards."

Although the Pirates went into the locker room with a 16-13 lead, the Cards soon erased that with the good playing in the third and fourth quarters. The Pirates dropped the game to the Cards in the final quarter, as they saw their lead steadily falling away. The Cards overcame the one-sided scoring and pulled a 24-23 victory out that night. Karen Harding was the top scorer of the game as she led Riverside with 14 points, Martha McElligott followed with 7 for the Cards. Diann Morter scored 4, followed by Michelle McElligott and Lori Edwards with 3 each, Anita Palmer and Shelley Connor, each with 2, and Michelle LaRue with 1 for the Cards. Kathy Farlow had 6 for the Pirates, and Jyl Hobbs scored 2 and Christy Brandt had 1.
The girl cagers shot poorly from the gift line, but that's where they won the game. The Cards showed poorly with 4 of 14, but the Pirates shot only 1 out of 12. Both teams had the same number of turnovers, and the Cards out-rebounded their opponents 51-44.
"I'm glad we won," said Coach Doherty.

Darryl Bigelow sinks fast-break lay-in during tournament action against Umatilla in Condon last week. Bigelow was good for seven points in the contest.

Ione B-team edges past Riverside

Ione's junior high "B" team held on to a narrow lead in the closing moments of the fourth quarter to post a 28-26 win over Riverside during a road trip to Boardman last Thursday.
"It was a close game all the way—just back and forth," said Ione coach Bob Deeter. Darrin Padberg was high point man for the Ione B team, with 10 points. Jeff Key was responsible for six points, and Steve Millman scored four.
In Ione A team junior high action, the junior Cardinals lost to Riverside by a 40-26 margin. Riverside maintained a fairly comfortable 10-point cushion over Ione throughout most of the contest, according to Deeter. "But it was still a pretty good ball game," he said. "We played pretty well."

Denny Starr topped the scoring column for the junior Cards with 12 points, followed by Roger Morter and Don Taylor with four points apiece. Junior high level basketball action will continue today, when Ione travels to Stanfield.

Mustang senior Mike Stookey drives for a field goal, ignoring Umatilla defenders. Stookey made 13 points in the game, and performed well in the rebounding department, too.

Mustang frosh best Ione, Helix

Heppner High School's freshman basketball squad has been victorious in its first two outings of the season, scoring a 57-21 win over Helix and a 53-33 win over Ione.
In the opening game of the year, the Mustang frosh held Helix to only four points in each of the first three quarters, while scoring 49 points in the same period of time.
Heppner maintained a 45 per cent shooting success average, with Robert Bier and John Murray ending the game in double figures—Bier with 12 and Murray with 11.
Other Heppner point scorers were Doug Holland and Dorian Farrar, each with eight; Don Lott with six; Cliff Dougherty and Jeff Sumner, each with three; and Mike Walsingham, Pat Parker and Earl Hammons, each with two.

Holland led the freshman Mustangs' rebounding effort, bringing down 14, followed by Murray with 10 and Farrar with eight.
In the contest against Ione's C team, Lott and Holland tied for Heppner's top scoring honors, with each player sinking 13 points. Ione's Ralph Morter, however, was the leading scorer of the game, with 15 points, with teammate Barney Rea picking up 13.
While the freshman Mustangs shot well, their rebounding efforts played an important part in their victory. Heppner came up with 47 rebounds to Ione's 18. Doug Holland picked the ball off the boards 13 times, while Farrar and Bier each brought down eight.
The Heppner frosh will meet Helix at 4 p.m. on Saturday.
