

IFYE youth to report here on adventures in Hungary

Debbie Hoefft, International Four-H Youth Exchangee, who just returned from a six-month stay in Hungary, will be reporting on her experiences there when she visits Morrow County on January 14-17. Any group wishing Debbie to share her experiences with a slide presentation may schedule her time by calling Birdine at 676-9642.

Information is available at the Extension Office, Heppner.

4-H SKATING PARTY
Families joined the fun on fun at the pizza parlor. While the weather looked doubtful for traveling earlier in the day, attendance was good at the skating party. More than 50 attended, and all reported a good time. Plans call for a repeat of the event later in the year.

THANKS TO MODELS FOR FARM-CITY BANQUET

We'd like to voice a very special thanks to all those who modeled in the style show at the recent Farm-City Banquet, and to those who provided "antique" clothing for the show. Our models provided the new fashions. New garments modeled were from Cole's House of Fashion, Lebusch, Gardner's Men's Wear, and Kroll's Department Store. Models for the event were: Kathy Query, Mary Martin, Donna Peterson, Sharon Seeger, Deb Palmer, Carolyn Cole, Darcie Rhea, Diane Dollarhide, Vi Wilgers, Mark Tullis, Tom McElligott, Don Cole, John Nordheim, Karen Thompson, Angie, Marie and Francine Evans, Debbie Paustain, Judy Wright and Kimberly Kroll.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL...
With Christmas just a minute away, we at the Extension Office would like to express our wishes that your "Morrow County" Christmas be the very best ever...and that your New Year be filled to overflowing with blessings! Have a wonderful holiday season!

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORMS AVAILABLE

Three scholarship application forms of interest to high school seniors who have been involved in 4-H or FFA during their high school years, are now available at the Extension Office in Heppner. They are the Alpha Gamma Rho scholarship which is available to incoming freshman at Oregon State University majoring in some field of agriculture; the Union Pacific Railroad Scholarship (different forms for 4-H and FFA, and 4-H application must be returned to Morrow Extension Office); The third application is the Harold A. Cohn Scholarship, which is in the amount of $1,000. Those applying for the Cohn scholarship must be students or potential students in the Department of Animal Science at O.S.U. More infor-
