International Table Tennis League.

"And since Olson is not the kind of man to overlook the publicity value of holding his championships in the middle of the sticks, press releases were immediately fired off.

The article concludes with, "We do some tongue-in-cheek things with our publicity to get the public's interest," Olson said later. "But there's no more show business in this than, say, the world series or super bowl."

"The publicity worked. A big crowd turned out to watch Haiti edge Thailand for the championship. The story was carried by the major wire services and spread throughout the Northwest. Judy Bochenki, a native Oregonian who made it to the cover of Time as the youngest member of the U.S. 'ping pong diplomacy' in 1972--was part of the winning side (none of the Haitians were from Haiti--one was even a Thai).

"Back in Heppner, the memories linger. On the occasional bumper sticker, construction cap or windbreaker about town you see the legend writ large, 'Heppner 1978, Ping Pong Capital of the World.'"

Old-fashioned discipline required that all expressions of appreciation for Christmas gifts needed to be voiced or written before the old year ended. Also individuals and families have long been encouraged to take stock of their living patterns and to resolve to achieve improvement in the new year.

While we were living in the parsonage at Lexington, I clipped a most admirable set of resolutions from a Sunday newspaper and scotch-taped it to the kitchen wall. When we moved to Heppner in the spring of 1973 I carefully transferred the item to the inside of my most used kitchen-cabinet door where I can see it often.

Here are the lines written by a Walter Scott under the simple heading "Resolutions."

No one will ever get out of this world alive. Resolve therefore in the year ahead to come to maintain a sense of values. Take care of yourself. Good health is everyone's major source of wealth. Without it, happiness is almost impossible.

Resolve to be cheerful and helpful. People will repay you in kind. Avoid angry, abrasive people. They are generally vengeful. Avoid Zealots. They are generally humorless.

Resolve to listen more and to talk less. No one ever learns anything by talking. Be chary of giving advice. Wise men don't need it, and fools won't heed it.

Resolve to be tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving, and tolerant of the weak and wrong. Sometime in life you will have been all of these.

Do not equate money with success. There are many successful money-makers who are miserable failures as human beings. What counts most about success is how a man achieves it.

Resolve to love next year someone you didn't love this year. Love is the most enriching ingredient of life.

Dispatcher Betty Launer and Deputy Kip Morris were busy Tuesday arranging materials and getting settled in at new quarters for the Morrow County Sheriff's Office in the basement of the Courthouse. New offices in the basement also house the Juvenile Director's office. Entrance to the Sheriff's Office may be gained by using the outside stairs at the rear of the Courthouse. The move opened up much needed office space upstairs in the Courthouse for other departments.
