

Irrigon zone change hearing is rescheduled

Because of the holiday activities the council hearing on adoption of a zoning ordinance and related land use changes has been reset for Jan 7 at the North Morrow Annex Building.

A zone change to light industrial is being considered for properties south of Highway 730 and lying between 14th and 15th streets. The

A New Years Eve party and dance was planned by the Irrigon Lions Club with Wayne McCutchen and the Country Music Makers, from 9 until after mid-night.

Donna Driver and her grandmother, Ada Montague, 91 years, visited relatives in Tacoma and Ellensburg for a week during the Christmas holidays. Miss Driver left her grandmother at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Florence and Francis Palmer, then drove on to Tacoma where she visited her father, Jack Driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry McCoy

visited his parents for four days before Christmas since they knew they would be unable to come to Irrigon at that time. So Benny and Floribel had two Christmases.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hobbs on Christmas day included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs Jyl and Becky, Irrigon and Sheryl Hobbs' mother, Mrs. Vonna McKinney and Roy Riddle of Pasco.

A recent visitor at the Floyd Hobbs home was their son Byran Hobbs of Portland. They were also expecting Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hobbs of Klamath Falls to visit soon.
