Delpha Jones

Leora Kane was an overnight patient at Pioneer Memorial Hospital last week, after she suffered burns on her face during a cooking accident. Holly Rebekah Lodge met one day last week at the home of Florence McMillan. Josie Peck was initiated into the lodge. Secret sisters were revealed, and names were drawn for secret sisters for the coming year. Refreshments were served by hostesses Alma Vinson and Joyce Buchanan. Door prize was won by Delpha Jones.

Three Links Club was held at the home of Ruth Robinson on Thursday. Plans were discussed for the president's visit on March 1 at Holly

Rebekah. Committees for planning and cooking a special dinner and for decorating were appointed. The group also made plans for a stew supper and card party for St. Patrick's Day on March 17. Admission for the event was set at $3, to include stew, french bread, dessert and the card party. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will take place at the Irene Padberg home.

Aaron Klinger of Boardman has been spending some time with his mother, Annetta, while his father, Pete Klinger, is a patient at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Balfe of Anchorage, Alaska, visited last week with their son, Scott, and Mrs. Balfe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kea Palmer. The Balfes were returning home following a week's vacation in the Hawaiian Islands. On Thursday night, the Palmer were hosts to a family dinner for all of their children—the Balfes, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Rea of Hermiston and son Mike of Heppner. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, parents of Mrs. Palmer, were present.

Souper Seamers hold 4-H meeting

Souper Seamers 4-H Club held their last meeting at Kim George's house on Feb. 10.

We learned how to make submarine sandwiches and soup. Our junior leader, Tara Mahoney, demonstrated how to boil eggs. She also made each member a needle holder out of red felt in the shape of a heart for Valentine's Day. Kimberlie Wright demonstrated how to measure liquids.

Our next meeting will be held March 3, at Merry DeSpain's house.

April 3 vote crucial to Boardman

Boardman area voters will have several choices to make, in addition to school-related issues, when the April 3 election date rolls around.

The election will include voting for new directors for the Boardman Rural Fire Protection District, the Boardman Park and Recreation District and the Boardman Cemetery District. Two four-year terms are up for grabs on the fire district panel, in addition to vacancies in two unexpired directors' positions. Two directors for four-year terms are also being sought by the park and recreation district, and two additional directors are needed to fill unexpired terms. The cemetery district has one four-year director's term open for election.

Nominating positions must be filed with the Morrow County Clerk prior to Feb. 27. Anyone interested in filing for any of the positions may obtain blank petitions at Boardman City Hall.

HARRP applications mistake filled

SALEM—Taxpayers filing 1978 Homeowner and Renter Refund Program (HARRP) claims are making several common errors, the Oregon Department of Revenue has found. The most common errors are:

—Renters are not completing the rent schedule on the claim form;

—Homeowners are not attaching a copy of their property tax statement to their claim form;

—Homeowners are attaching assessed valuation notices instead of property tax statements;

—Mobile home residents are filing claims which don't include either property tax statements or rent schedules. For most of these errors, the claim forms are returned to taxpayers for corrections.

HARRP refunds are mailed in October. Deadline to file a HARRP claim is April 16. Individuals with less than $16,000 annual household income may qualify. The amount of the refund depends on income level and property taxes or rent paid. Claim forms are included in the state income tax packet and are also available separately.
