Triple-A Pendleton, Hermiston and Kennewick teams, plus Pilot Rock, Elgin and Helix. Healy tied the winning jump of 5 feet 2 inches, taking third place honors on misses. She also took second in the long jump with a leap of 15' 11 1/2", even though "she took off a foot behind the board," according to her coach. "I'm looking for great things from her," Conklin said. "She's quite a competitor."

With no juniors on the girls' team, underclassmen will have to make up the backbone of the squad. Returning sophomore Kelly Hammond took fourth in the shotput and sixth in the javelin at the Pendleton meet, prompting Conklin to comment that he is "pleased with her marks this early in the season." Margaret Kincaid, a transfer student from Lone, will be a sprinter and long jumper for the Fillies this season. Her sister, Mary, will high jump—she placed fourth last week at the Pendleton tourney. Rounding out the roster will be Ginny Estes, a sprinter, and new student Dawn Honnegger, at shotput, discus and javelin.

spend the week with her sister and family. Peggy Dean and Al Riney, Condon, stopped in Kinzua this Sunday evening to bring Cindy home.

Carol and Bernard Dyer and sons left Thursday morning for St. Maries, Idaho to spend several days with her parents, Les and Virginia Malloroy.

Jiggs and Rita Bowman left Thursday to take Rob Hulett to McNary to be with his grandmother, Marie Hulett. Rob, who has been visiting in Fossil with the Steve Conlee family, was called to McNary by the death of his grandfather, Melvin (Red) Hulett.

Jiggs and Rita spent the night with her sister and family. Gloria and Clayton Clapper. They returned home after attending the services for the long-time Kinzua resident.

Friday afternoon Chuck and Marti Mitchell, Nina Castles and Raymond and Deena Reid went to McNary to take Chuck's daughters, Windi and Cindy home.

Heppner firm to direct mock disaster drill

A mock disaster drill will be conducted Saturday, March 31 in Athena by Quick Response Training, Inc. of Heppner. The drill will begin at 5:30 p.m.

Linda Connor of QRT, Inc., said persons traveling through the area at that time, or having relatives living there, should not be concerned. The class is being conducted for Weston and Athena emergency services crews.
