

Ione news

• Eva Hamlett • 422-7557

Bob and Cheryl Foskett of Moraga, Ca. are the proud parents of a 10 pound 3 ounce baby girl, who has been named Janelle Marie. She was born on April 13 and will join a brother, Christopher at home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, former Ione residents, are grandparents.

Members of the Ione Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Edith Nicholson on Monday afternoon and did a spring clean-up on her yard. They also separated and potted plants for the Garden Club plant sale on April 19.

The annual United Church of Christ clothing drive will be held the morning of April 26 at the church. Donations of clothing may be left in the basement any time in the next 10 days. Mrs. Bill Rietmann and Mrs. Pete Cannon are co-chairman for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom were surprised with a "Grandpa and Grandma" shower for their new little grandson, Tyler Weiper of Kelseyville, Ca. at the Willows Grange Hall on Sunday afternoon. After the gifts were opened, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Cleo Childers and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell of Milwaukie have been visiting her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Rea. Also guests of the Reas were their daughter, Mrs. Jim Martin and family of Hillsboro, who were here for a brief vacation while Mr. Martin was away on business.

Easter weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swanson were Jim's brothers and families, John and Kathy Swanson and three girls of Redding, Ca.; Dennis and Joan Swanson and three girls and their son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Jackie Swanson and son Daniel all of Auburn, Wash. They were joined on Friday evening by Jim's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Turner and family; Jim's mother, Mrs. Irene Swanson; and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Greenup, all of Heppner. Mrs. Vera Rietmann entertained her family on Easter Sunday. Here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rhode and Paul and Mary Jo of Kennewick. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and three sons, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rietmann and Jerry, and Mrs. Ruby Roberts.

Visiting at the home of the Roy W. Lindstroms this weekend were their son, Stephen, of Hermiston and Nancy Tuor of Portland.

The Ione United Church of Christ began the celebration of Easter with a breakfast served to 88 persons in the social rooms followed by a worship service in the church. Easter music was presented by the choir, who sang "Christus Resurrexit" and by Mrs. David Cheney, who sang "Because He Lives". The choir and minister, Dr. Neal Chobot combined in a choral and musical reading "Hush Now". Mrs. Bill Rietmann was the pianist.

Guests at the country home of the Robert Heidemans were Mrs. Irma Welch and Vera Woody of Connell, Wash. and Helen Heideman of Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Harold Sherer was guest of honor at a birthday party on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Palmer.

Pacific Lutheran University students home for Easter week were Natalie Tews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and Joel Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newton of Portland were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard French.

Mrs. Keith Peck and Natalie and Brian visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, over Easter.

Book readers might be interested to know that the Ione Public Library has many of the books from the best seller lists now on the adult fiction and non-fiction shelves. A just-published book by Irving Wallace, "The Pigeon Project", a sweeping, exciting novel by one of America's best selling authors has just been purchased.

Other good reading is included in "Rose Wilder Lane, Her Story" by Rose Wilder

Lane and her grandson Roger MacBride. She is the daughter of Laura Ingalls Wilder, author of the champion best seller "Little House on the Prairie", one of the best read books in the library.

For homemakers a new book is "Pure and Simple" by Marion Burros, who gives delicious recipes for additive-free cooking.

Books by famous personalities in the news recently are Lauren Beall's "By Myself", Betty Ford's "The Times of My Life", Christina Crawford's "Mommy Dearest." Volumes one and two of "Robert Kennedy and His Times" are also available, plus "Dress Gray" by Lucian K. Truscott, a novel of West Point men and boys and the balance of power.

Nancy Friday is the author of a new book "My Mother My Self", which is her search for identity through a frank and provocative study of interviews with about 100 mothers and daughters to uncover how we become the women we are.

Many other new books are available. The library hours are 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Friends invited to McElligott wedding

All friends are cordially invited to attend the wedding of Mary Pat McElligott and Ernie Collins on Saturday at 2 p.m. in St. Patrick's Church in Ione.

A reception will follow the ceremony.

District 8 VFW Auxiliaries will elect officers

Delegates and members representing the Posts and Auxiliaries of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Oregon, will meet at the American Legion Hall in Heppner on April 28 at 8 p.m. to elect District 8 officers for the 1979-80 fiscal year, according to Robert Bell, District Commander of Echo and Jo Fullerton, District President, also of Echo. Lunch will be served following the meetings. District 8 includes Posts and Auxiliaries in Pendleton, John Day, Heppner, Pilot Rock, Milton-Freewater, Hermiston, Irrigon and Echo.

Representing the Department of Oregon will be State Sr. Vice Commander, Koe Nishimoto of Hood River and Anna Dale Bohannon, State Jr. Vice President from Medford.

The officers who will guide the activities of the District for the next fiscal year will be elected and installed but will not assume their respective duties until after the state convention to be held in Portland in June.

Lexington news

• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

Florence McMillan was honored Sunday with a birthday party at the Lexington I.O.O.F. Hall. The rooms were decorated in yellow, green and white. The birthday cake decorated by her daughter Pat was a lovely birthday card design with Happy 80th Birthday written and a live golden rose across the page. Punch and coffee were served by her granddaughters, Charlene Whitney, Valda Smith, Linda Jones and Pearl Lee Karran. In charge of the guest card was Vicky Bowen. Following the afternoon at which time she was greeted by 68 relatives and friends, a family pot-luck dinner was enjoyed. One of the highlights was the identifying of old photographs brought by a cousin from Cove. These were of Mrs. McMillan's mother and sisters and their families. Pinocle was enjoyed later in the evening with Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Bergstrom each winning with 1500 trump. There were guests from Irrigon, Pendleton, Hermiston, Hood River and Cove. Hosting the afternoon were her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. George

Degree of Honor district convention here Apr. 27

District convention will be held in Heppner for the Degree of Honor Protective Association on April 27. Participating will be lodges from John Day, Baker, Pendleton and Heppner. Luncheon will be served at the hall at noon with an afternoon session to follow. The evening banquet will be held at West of Willow with the exemplification of the work following at the hall. All members are urged to attend.

Jaqueline Kay is first child born to Lanes

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lane, Heppner, are the parents of their first-born child, a daughter, Jaqueline Kay. She weighed 8 lbs., 4 oz., and was born Thursday, April 12, at Good Shepherd Hospital, Hermiston.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Van Marter Jr. of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. George Lane, of Condon. Great-grandmother is Mrs. A.C. Ball of Heppner.

Irvin of Irrigon, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt visited on Monday with Homer Hughes who is still a patient in the hospital in Walla Walla.

Irene Padberg has returned to her home after major surgery at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston.

Catie Padberg motored to Dayton, Wash. with her grandson Larry over the weekend where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Padberg.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson and children from the Tri-cities visited Eula Bloodworth one day last week.

Billy VanWinkle visited his mother over the weekend from his home in Enterprise.

Three Links Club met at the home of Leila Palmer on Thursday afternoon. Plans were discussed for different money making projects and the trip to the State Assembly in Baker. The door prize was won by Alma Vinson. Refreshments were served.

Florence McMillan was an overnight guest of her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Papineau were Portland visitors on Friday night.

Weekend visitors at the C.C. Jones home were their daughter Charlene and granddaughter Kimberlee of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland visited her mother, Freda Majeske of Heppner, a sister and family Pat Wright and a brother and family Gene Majeske of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Alanzo Henderson, Hood River, visited relatives and friends in the area Saturday.

Large crowd attends Ruth Locust Friendship night

A large crowd of guests and members of Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, O.E.S. attended Friendship Night at the Masonic Temple on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, worthy matron and patron presided. Following a welcome to friends by the worthy matron, Angela Halvorsen of Hermiston, a granddaughter of the Halvorsens, performed a dance.

The highlight of the meeting was the introduction of a 50-year member, Mrs. Amanda Duvall of Heppner, who was initiated into the Order of Eastern Star on Feb. 2, 1929. The Worthy Matron read a tribute in appreciation of 50-year members. Mrs. Wilma Cheney sang "Memories" and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse played "I'll Always Be In Love With You" on the violin in honor of Mrs. Duvall. They were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C.C.

Carmichael. Other members, who have belonged 50 years this spring but were unable to attend are Mrs. Kathryn Feldman Shairman of Aptos, Ca. and Mrs. Hilda Justus Peterson of Pendleton. Mrs. Doris Ball, a 56 year member, and Mrs. Annie Schaffer of Pendleton, a 57 year member, were also introduced.

Twenty six past matrons and patrons were introduced and honored with a reading by Mrs. Marilyn Childers. A solo, "Easter Parade" was sung by Mrs. Cheney. Each was presented with a gift.

The program closed with "Danny Boy" a violin solo by Mrs. Smouse.

In honor of friendship each person was presented with a spring bulb.

Distinguished and honored guests present were Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson, past grand matron of Heppner, Mrs. Marjorie Wick of Queen Esther Chapter No. 101 of Hermiston and a member of the EASTRI. Committee; Hilmer Horn, Purple Sage Chapter No. 180, Pilot Rock, member of the Youth Involvement Committee; Mrs. Mary Bryant, Grand Representative of California in Oregon;

Mrs. Frances Smead, Bushee Chapter No. 19 of Pendleton, Grand Representative of Scotland in Oregon; Worthy Matrons, Maggie Horn of Purple Sage Chapters, Carol Edger-ton, Oregon Trail Chapter No. 181, Frances Holohan of Queen

Esther Chapter; Irene Stoker Umatilla Chapter No. 107; and the following worthy patrons, Cecil Stump, Umatilla Chapter, Hilmer Horn, Purple Sage Chapter, and Floyd Abercrombie, Oregon Trail Chapter.

Second Annual Heppner Spring LUMBERJACK SHOW

Saturday, April 21, 1979

1:00 p.m.

Fairgrounds Heppner, Oregon

See World Champions & Local Contestants

Vertical Chopping
Horizontal Chopping
Jack & Jill Crosscut
Men's Double Bucking
Men's Single Bucking
Hot Power Saw

★ Stock Power Saw (Morrow County Residents Only)
★ Choker Race
★ Axe Throwing

★ Local Champion Picked From Points in these Events

General Admission
Adults $2.50
Child $1.25
Under 12

We'll build you a home tailor-made to your needs.

If you like a home designed to fit your family—with personalized touches like an extra large family room or choice of fireplaces or greenhouse kitchen windows...

If you like a home built to exceed standard codes for rugged reliability—a home that can save you energy dollars year after year...

Then you ought to see a Boise Cascade Home today. We'll help you choose from over 40 exciting plans, dozens of exteriors, new designs and options that let you tailor-make your home to suit your needs.

Come visit us today.

We're Authorized Dealers For

Boise Cascade Homes

And We Want To Get To Know You

CLOUGH HOMES

Condon Hwy.—Arlington

454-2795

1979

Morrow County Fair & Rodeo

QUEEN'S CORONATION

Saturday, April 21 6:30 p.m.

Fair Pavilion-Heppner

First Official Appearance Of The 1979

Morrow County Fair & Rodeo Court

Special Entertainment

Old-Time Fiddlers' Show and Dance
Following The Queen's Coronation

Queen Debora Palmer

Stew & Pie Feed

Starting At 6 p.m.
In The Pavilion

Watch Next Week's Paper

Special Sentry Sale Circular That's Chock Full O' Bargains

Pettyjohn's 476-9157 HEPPER