Scholarship board to name recipients

The selection committee for the Carl W. Troedson Educational Fund met last week at the Morrow County School District Office in Lexington to select students to receive scholarship grants from the Troedson Fund for the 1979-80 school year. The committee members are Morrow County School Superintendent Matt Doherty, Morrow County Judge Delwin Nelson and Valby Lutheran Church Pastor, John Maas. Award recipients will be announced at graduation exercises in the county's three high schools. Present college students whose grants have been renewed will receive direct notification by the committee. The selections are made on the basis of financial need, academic ability and the student's prospects for success in post high school training.

Sign up for Fall program

Parents of children who will be entering Kindergarten at Ione Elementary School next year are asked to bring them to the school on Tuesday, May 22, at 10:15 a.m. for pre-registration.

They will spend the morning with the kindergarten teacher and finish at 11:15 a.m.

Good News Club hosts ventriloquist

The Good News Club in Heppner held its last meeting Monday.

Meeting changed

The Ione Church of Christ Study Group meeting originally scheduled for Thursday, May 17 has been rescheduled for May 29 in the church basement beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Five pronouncements will be discussed at the meeting before the General Synod meets at Indianapolis.

Mike Newell, director for the Child Evangelism Fellowship in Umatilla and Grant counties, was the special speaker. Newell, a ventriloquist, brought Toshua, his dummy and they were enjoyed by all.

Newell is also the director for Good News Camp. Camp is year will be held August 19-25 and all children seven to 12½ are eligible to attend. Camp Good News is held at camp Elkamah which is on Highway 244 between La Grande and Ukiah. Camp cost is $22 plus a $3 non-refundable registration fee.

Anyone interested may contact Mr. Newell at 276-7329 or 276-4988 or write P.O. Box 1454 Pendleton, Oregon 97801.

Kindergarten registration scheduled

Heppner Elementary School has scheduled a Kindergarten Orientation Day, Wednesday, May 23 from 1-4 p.m. and again at 6-8 p.m. in the Kindergarten Room at the school.

Parents may register at that time. There will be no class in the afternoon but they will be able to meet the teacher, get used to the room. To register their children, parents need a birth certificate and a record of immunizations. If immunizations are needed, they may attend a clinic at the school Thursday, May 24 at 9:30 a.m.

Children can not be admitted to school without up to date immunizations, according to state law.

Portland Sojourners to sing here Friday

The Sojourners, a male gospel quartet from the Portland area, will present a program tomorrow evening, Friday, May 18, at 7:30 at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Heppner.

Singing together since 1972, the Sojourners have presented gospel concerts across the United States and in Canada for churches, camp meetings and fairs. All four have full-time careers as well. Gene Syfert, tenor, is a painting contractor. Don McConnell, lead, is owner of McConnell Land Surveying. Ray Haynes, baritone, is a marketing director in the paramedical field, and Val Devitt, bass, is in hospital administration. The wives, also members of the Sojourners, accompany the quartet on the piano and organ.

Combining several styles of quartet harmony, the Sojourners bring a program of varied and inspirational music which they like to call Music with a Message. Their one purpose is to better acquaint others with Jesus Christ, their best friend. This promises to be an evening of outstanding inspirational music.

Lexington news

• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

A group of Holly Rebekah Lodge members attended a luncheon and fun afternoon at the Willows Grange Hall sponsored by the Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge No. 91.

The dinner was served at 12:30 p.m. from tables beautifully decorated with lighted candles and candle rings, matching napkins and May baskets at each place in pastel colors.

A program of clever poems and readings were heard about mothers after which games were played with each guest taking home a prize. Preceding the meeting the ladies met at the Jones home for a short Three Links club meeting. Plans were made for summer card parties for a benefit of the lodge, the food sale held on Friday and discussed business for the rebekah Assembly in Baker. Those present were Josie Peck, Virginia Peck, Florence McMillan, Leila Palmer, Joyce Buchanan and the hostess Delpha Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Burch Sawyer of Pasco were Lexington callers Sunday with friends.

Mrs. Charles Buchanan spent the weekend with her mother and friends in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick were weekend visitors in Lexington from their work in Pendleton.

Vesta Kilkenny of Portland has been visiting in and around Lexington this last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Coffin and sons Pat and Bill of Elmira were recent overnight visitors with the Bill Smith family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Laws of Lewiston, Idaho spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson were Goldendale visitors last hursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith and son Bill motored to Pendleton on Sunday where they met their daughter Karen Canada and children Blake and Jeana from La Grande, and enjoyed a Mothers Day dinner.

Hazel Jackson of The Dalles is visiting her sister, Gladys Van Winkle.
