medical services and training for personnel.

"I think most would agree that a hospital and nursing home are a must in a community this size and this remote geographically," said Dick, in summing up the board's budget request, "and the only way we can keep these facilities operating at the level of care people expect is to request a budget like the one we have."

Spring Concert Thursday night

The Heppner High School Band and Jim Ackley Rock Band left Sunday for a band tour of Seaside in Western Oregon.

The 40 band members and six chaperones performed at Broadway Middle School and Gearhart Elementary School and enjoyed some of the recreational fun along the ocean beaches. They stayed at Camp Rilea, a military reservation near Seaside.

A wide variety of music was played at the performances according to Band Director

Jim Ackley. The contemporary rock group, the Jim Ackley Band, was slated to play such hits as "Three Times A Lady" and "Blue Morning, Blue Day."

The final high school band concert of the year starts at 7:30 p.m. with free admission for the public. The choir will be under the direction of Kitty Mooberry.

A concert May 31 at 7:30 p.m. will conclude the elementary and junior high musical season.

When they return to Heppner later in the week, the band will be preparing for Thursday night's Spring Concert at the Heppner High School gymnasium.
