Call project child find

If you suspect your child or a child you know has a problem, a phone call could change yours and his life.

Child find is trying to locate Oregon children, birth to 21 years of age, with physical, mental or emotional problems or chronic illness.

This state wide campaign is sponsored by the State Dept. of Education and mandated by the federal government.

Girl's State delegates

Two Ione High School juniors will be going to Girl's State at Willamette University in Salem this summer sponsored by the Ione American Legion Auxiliary.

Receiving the honor based on leadership and scholastic achievement are Kathy Gutierrez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gutierrez and Martha McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick McElligott, according to Mrs. Helen Drake.

The pair will spend a week in Salem learning about government and the legislative process.

Martha McElligott (left) and Kathy Gutierrez (right), have been selected by the Ione American Legion Auxiliary to attend Girl's State at Willamette University in Salem this summer. Both girls are juniors at Ione High School.

There have been numerous complaints of persons breaking beer bottles at the High View Cemetery. Since it is getting so close to Memorial Day and the caretakers are busy getting the cemetery cleaned and mowed, not only this one but five or six others in the area, please put your bottles back in the care and dispose of them somewhere else. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated not only by the caretakers but also by those who have family buried up there.

Food which will be available at the Ione Bebeque, June 2, will be bread, rhubarb jelly, gooseberry jam, pie, cakes and non-food items for sale will include baby bibs and quilts.

Lodge luncheon

Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge No. 91, Ione, entertained the following lodges, Stanfield, Heppner and Lexington at a luncheon at 12:30 p.m., May 10. There were 34 present. Readings were given and games played.
