groom, also an OSU graduate, is employed by Georgia Pacific in Portland.

Moellers are parents of girl

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moeller, Heppner, are the parents of a little girl, Lori Jean, 7 lbs., 9 ounces born June 30.

Marsha Lovgren engaged

One of the most successful career girls of Heppner High School's Class of 1968, Marsha Lovgren, daughter of Heppner City Manager and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, will become Mrs. Bill Shannon, Jr., on August 25. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Shannon of New Canaan, Connecticut.

After her high school graduation, Marsha pursued business studies in Kansas City. She soon became an employee of the United States Department of State in Washington, D.C. After six years there she was transferred to the American Embassy in London where she has worked as a secretary for the past four years.

During work breaks, she has traveled extensively around Europe and in the Middle East. She met Bill Shannon while he was a U.S. Marine Guard stationed at the embassy in London. He graduated from high school at New Canaan and now preparing for a new career as a commercial pilot.

The Lovgren-Shannon wedding will take place in the garden of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in New Canaan. Marsha arrived in Heppner on June 22 and will be visiting with her family and friends
