190 attend Doherty family reunion

Last weekend, 190 members of the Doherty Family held a "sometimes" annual reunion at the Blackhorse Homestead Ranch and in Heppner.

Mrs. Bernard Doherty was the principal hostess at the mid-afternoon Saturday picnic at the ranch. On Sunday, most of the family attended St. Patrick's Church in Heppner and the after-mass coffee hour. Among those members of the "Blackhorse," "Pilot Rock" and "Sand Hollow" branches of the Doherty tribe who rallied were members with the following family names: McLaughlin, Daly, Dyer, Thorsen, Healy, Brown, Howard, Wardy, Turner, Runnion and Miller. The family is now in its fifth generation in this area.

Some of the out-of-town participants were Roger Doherty and wife Ilene, from Denver, Betty Thorsen from Mt. View, California and Christie Brown from Fountain Valley in southern California. A good size group came from the Seattle-Tacoma area.

The youngest attending was three-month-old Ryan, son of the Jack McLaughlins of Elma, Washington. The oldest was Kate Daly, Pendleton, the mother of Charley Daly, Cal Healy and Mary Doherty of this county and Patricia Boyd, Pendleton.
